James Jones Resigns Post in Stowe Schools

James T. Jones, supervising principal of West Pottsgrove school district for the past seven years, is leaving the post to become supervising principal of a Perry county school.

His resignation was announced yesterday by Herbert W. Stauffer, secretary of West Pottsgrove's school board. Jones submitted the resignation to Stauffer.

The board secretary said the resignation would be acted on at the board's meeting Wednesday.

Under Pennsylvania school law, Stauffer said, "The board has no alternative but to accept the resignation." He added that he believed Jones would leave before the end of the school year, and noted that a school board can only hold a professional employe for 60 days after a resignation is submitted.

The question of a successor also will came up at the board meeting, Stauffer asserted.

JONES, who lives at 224 Glasgow street, is leaving to head a new eight-district jointure in Perry county.

The jointure is called Susquenita. When the building program there is completed, there will be approximately 1800 pupils in all grades, compared with the 500 in the Stowe school.

"It will be a big challenge for him" Stauffer asserted.

Jones came to West Pottsgrove in 1947 and has been supervising principal since.

Besides his principal's duties, he is vice president of the Stowe Lions club, and for four years, prior to joining the Lions the past Fall, he was a member of the Kiwanis club in Pottstown.

He has been president of the Perkiomen-Schuylkill High school Athletic association for the past three years, and is vice president of the supervising principal's organization in Montgomery county.

"I want to extend my deepest appreciation to the school board members of my district. They've extended to me every courtesy and assistance and I sincerely say that they've played a large part in enabling me to make this advancement in the education field."

ABC Hobby Show Opens Today at Local Armory

You can watch baby chicks pop out of the shell, you can examine a glistening old car and you can send a radio message to your boy overseas, (free of charge) all at the American Business club hobby show in the King street Armory today.

And for an entertaining night, for a look-see at 78 exhibits, you will be helping the cerebral palsy fund, buying braces and providing care for children afflicted with the crippling disease.

Chairman Joe L. Bowen last night asserted, "Every cent taken in at the show will be turned over to the cerebral palsy fund." (Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 30 cents for children).

The exhibit will open officially this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and visitors are welcome to stroll the aisles until 10 p. m.

The same hours will prevail tomorrow.

ONE EXHIBITOR will hatch baby chicks in a glass incubator.

Bowen called the show a $100,000 affair and pegged the top exhibit, a $25,000 antique auto. Six old autos line the aisles.

Youngest exhibitor is Betsy Hoffman, 8½, with a line of miniature dolls, and the oldest exhibitor is the Rev. Arthur H. Simpson, 82, who has contributed his collection of oil paintings to display racks.

"One of the fine features of the show will be the free radio messages to service personnel. The Pottstown Amateur Radio association is sponsoring this. If a mother wants to sent a message to her son overseas, the association will take

Woman Injured When Hit by Car In Mid-Borough

A 69-year-old Pottstown woman was injured last night when she was struck by a car while crossing Hanover street at High street.

Treated and discharged from Pottstown hospital, where she was taken in the Good Will ambulance was Mrs. Keziah Bushey, of 23 North Hanover street.

He told police he was traveling north on Hanover street and was about to make a left hand turn onto High street.

He was watching pedestrians cross the intersection

When he saw her it was too late to stop, he said.

Boyertown Lad 'Good'

Paul Kersher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Kersher, 215 Shaner street, Boyertown, underwent surgery yesterday.

CHRISTMAS BANK SAVINGS SET RECORD

Local Residents Have Over Million for Yuletide

MORE MONEY IN LINE COMPARED WITH 1952

Though a smaller number of persons held the accounts this year, Pottstown area men and women banked a record million-and-a-quarter dollars for Christmas during 1953.

Reports from the three borough banks yesterday showed that a total of $1,278,562.52 will be paid out to 10,751 area residents. The checks will be mailed out Monday.

This year's Christmas fund savings were even higher than the past year's record $1,217,162.

And this year's savings means that the average saver will get more money than he did the past year because the number of savers dropped from 12,007 to 10,751 this year.

(One bank official explained that the drop in number was probably due to the start of at least one new plant credit union during the past year.)

The average Christmas fund keeper will get a check for $118 this year.

But only a part of that, if customs of the past are continued, will be spent for Christmas shopping—about 38 percent. The rest will go back into personal savings

Security Trust company reported the highest amount of money saved. In this bank, $549,447.77 was saved through the year by 3763 club members.

Their report the past year showed earnings of $189,980 for 2055 members.

The National Bank of Pottstown reported savings of $510,069.50 this year compared with a total of $490,000 the past year.

This bank had 4813 contributors this year; 5680 the past year.

Better Be Good Kids! Santa to Visit Friday

Santa Claus is coming to town.

Next Friday is the day, and that's only a week off.

The chubby old fellow will arrive at Pottstown's Reading station on the 9:31 o'clock train Friday morning, and he'll have his pack of gifts with him.

At the station he'll be met by a police escort and a welcoming committee of happy children and smiling adults.

A special automobile—an open convertible—will be waiting there too. From it he'll wave to his admirers while riding down High street.

The police escort will take Santa as far as the Hippodrome theater in his shiny car. There he will greet even more of his young friends.

A FREE one-hour show for the youngsters will be held in the theater at 10 a. m., with cartoon pictures and other movies that will delight the kids.

Mailbox Set Up In Mercury Office For Santa Letters

The mailbox that is especially for letters going to Santa Claus near the North Pole has been set up in The Mercury office.

If you want your child—or any child you know—to get a letter direct FROM Santa Claus in Fairbanks, Alaska, then this is the mailbox you want to use.

Once again, as he has the past few years, Santa has agreed to write letters to many boys and girls before Christmas.

He's doing it with the help of The Mercury, Pan American World Airways and Horace A. Hughes, secretary-manager of the Pottstown Automobile club.

Man Wakes Up In Time to Prevent Death From Gas

A Stowe couple narrowly escaped death from asphyxiation yesterday because the husband woke up before his alarm clock sounded.

Mrs. George Lasky, 555 Howard street, Stowe, said that her husband awoke earlier than usual yesterday morning and walked downstairs from the bedroom to the oil heater in the dining room.

On entering the room, he saw that it was filled with smoke, soot and fumes.

He peered into the stove but couldn't see the flames. So he opened the side door and suddenly billowing flames shot out, nearly burning him.

The room immediately filled with more soot and fumes.

Lasky got the situation under control, but as Mrs. Lasky said last night, "I suppose if he hadn't awakened when he did, the house would have been full of gas. We were lucky."

A 25-year-old Stowe man was in "serious" condition last night in Pottstown hospital with a head injury suffered when his jeep was knocked over by a car at Route 422 and Grosstown road in Stowe in heavy fog yesterday morning at 6:45 o'clock.

M. Robert Webb, 421 Center street, was admitted to the hospital with a possible skull fracture, multiple gashes of the face and head and multiple bruises.

He had been driving south on Grosstown road, crossing Route 422, on his way to work at Pottstown Metal Products division plant, when his jeep was bowled over.

West Pottsgrove Patrolman Anthony J. Canceliere, who investigated, learned that the left side of Webb's jeep was struck by a 1950 sedan driven by Henry E. Gettle, 36, Morristown RD 3, Lebanon county.

Gettle had been driving toward Pottstown in the fog. Both he and Webb had been alone at the time.

Four Men Released After Stay in Lockup

The four men who were picked up on suspicion early Wednesday morning were released yesterday by Pottstown police after questioning failed to produce any evidence against them.

The men were picked up after local police received a tip that the Rosedale diner, 1410 High street, was going to be burglarized. Two of the men were from Reading, the other two from Stony Creek Mills.

Relocation of Route 100 Will Cost $3½ Million

The relocation of Route 100 through Pottstown, including the new Schulykill bridge, will cost the State Highway department $3,581,000.

This was learned yesterday when bids were opened in Harrisburg for the project. The $3,581,000 figure was the low bid, submitted by Central Pennsylvania Quarry Stripping and Construction company, of Harrisburg.

William F. Lamb Sr., president of Pottstown Automobile club, was notified promptly of the bidding by the offices of C. H. Buckius, chief engineer of the department, and E. J. Kinney, traffic engineer for the five-county district that includes Pottstown.

Of the Central Pennsylvania company's bid, Lamb said, "I don't believe there is a doubt these people will get it (the contract)."

Lamb said he believed the contract would be signed within a few weeks, after bids have been tabulated and papers drawn up.

LAMB SAID the low bid was somewhat higher than had been anticipated. He pointed out that the construction job itself would provide employment for many Pottstown area men, at a time when there are layoffs in effect at several plants.

Of the project itself, he said, "Our community is certainly most fortunate to acquire such a fine highway improvement in the face of two very threatening traffic conditions here.

"First of all, it will be a wonderful relief of our highway traffic jams at High and Hanover streets, the strangulation which the Reading railroads cause with their long trains.

"And, of course, the other threat is the antique bridge over the Schuylkill river, which is now limited to tonnage, and which was built for the horse and buggy days."

Lamb is chairman of the Schuylkill River Bridge committee, which has been working toward fulfillment of the relocation project for more than three years.

The new four-lane highway will be called Route 147. The relocation starts near the North-South Coventry township line, has a clover leaf with overpass at Route 83; spans the Schuylkill near Pottstown Landing road; over Route 422, to King street.

All together, the contract calls for 17,947 linear feet of roadway to be built.

Scarcity of Water In Two Boroughs Brings Vital Plea

The boroughs of Collegeville and Trappe are so low on water these days that water department officials have asked residents to use it sparingly.

"The wells are lower now than they have been at any time," Charles Smedley, head of the joint water department for the two boroughs, said last night.

The main reason for the officials' warning was brought about by a misconception resulting from the recent snow storm, Smedley said.

"Most people thought the snow would fill the wells," he said, "but the wells got not one drop of water from the recent snow and rains," he said.

"The deepest penetration of water was about 22 inches," he added.

AS A RESULT, people have become lax in their use of water. There has been a water ban in effect in the two boroughs for the past two months.

Smedley warned that unless people restrict themselves voluntarily, the council will be forced to take more drastic action.

On a normal day, the two boroughs use about 130,000 gallons of water.

"We want to get it down to about 110,000 gallons a day. We know it can be done because before the snow and rains, people were using only that amount," he said.

The boroughs are supplied with water from artesian wells and a storage tank.

Mascot 'Smokey' Has Hot Time On Way to Fire

Smokey, a Dalmatian dog and the loyal mascot of Royersford's Friendship Hook and Ladder company, got a hot tail yesterday when going to a fire. The seat of the old fire truck was on fire.

Paul Isett, manager of the company, said that fire apparently had been smouldering in the flame-resistant seat of the old chemical truck since Wednesday night.

When the truck was taken to a smoke-scare at Pennhurst State school yesterday morning shortly before 6 o'clock, Isett continued, the breeze caused the smouldering fire to come to life.

First to feel the fire was Smokey, who was as always riding in the front seat of the chemical truck. Merrill Adams was driving. Isett was following the truck in a car.

"Smokey was carrying on on the seat," Isett said. "He had a hot tail, I suppose. But we thought he was just excited at going to a fire."

THIS OPINION was revised drastically when sparks began pouring from the seat. Adams stopped the truck, and he and Isett quickly extinguished the small fire. Smokey seemed none the worse for his experience.

The delay didn't mean anything, since the smoke scare was simply the result of an attendant's seeing steam escaping from a valve in a dormitory, and confusing it with smoke.

Local Girl to Seek Severance of Ties In Bigamy Case

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The young Pottstown girl who was duped into marrying a 26-year-old veteran who already had a wife and three-year-old child in New York City said yesterday she was going to seek an annulment of the bigamous marriage.

The confessed bigamist, Neal Steinbraker, of 1128 High street, in Pottstown hospital with a back ailment, said that when he had paid the penalty for his bigamy, he would not make any attempt to see the Pottstown young woman again.

"I've already hurt Nancy enough," he said from the hospital bed.

Steinbraker is being held in default of $1500 bail. Unless he can post bail in the meantime, he will be committed to Montgomery county prison to await trial as soon as he is released from the hospital.

The 26-year-old Army veteran was taken to the hospital after his Wednesday night hearing. While being led away toward a basement cell in borough hall, he fell down the steps.

He said yesterday he had aggravated a back injury for which

School Heads Here Invited to Dinner

Pottstown's school principals and supervisors, along with other borough citizens, have been invited to the dinner in honor of the three new school board members, to be held Dec. 7 at 6.30 p. m. at the Senior High school cafeteria.

Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, said last night that the swearing in of the new directors by Montgomery County Judge William Dannehower would be conducted at 6 p. m. at the school administration building.

The dinner, with Judge Dannehower as guest speaker, will start at 6:30 p. m., and the regular school board meeting will be held at 8 p. m. at the school administration building.

The three new board members, all Republicans, are Herbert R. Maack, Douglas V. O'Dell and Herbert G. Stauffer.

The dinner meeting at the Elks' home will begin with cocktails at 5.30 o'clock and will include entertainment by the Spicer Glee club, directed by Edward O'Neill.

Twenty-five-year men, thus, will become eligible for membership in the Quarter-Century club and the bulk of them are expected to join the ranks of 226 active members.

Watches will be presented by Dana Corporation President R. E. Carpenter.

The Quarter-Century club was founded on Nov. 29, 1948, at which time William Walker was chosen president. By-laws were ratified on May 5, 1949.

The popular Walker headed the club until this year when Louis Wagoner was named to succeed him.

Sun Prompts Leap In Temperature

Temperatures in the low 60's made the borough's Christmas decorations seem out of place.

But the whole production was under the direction of Mr. Sol.

Not til he walked on the stage did things start moving.

At 6 a. m., the mercury was sluggish at the 35 mark. But with the sun's appearance, temperatures soared to 39 by 9 a. m., past 50 at noon, up to the high of 62 at 3 p. m.

The early morning hours were shrouded in an ominous fog. After 6 a. m. clouds of fog wafted over

Twenty-five-year men, thus, will become eligible for membership in the Quarter-Century club and the bulk of them are expected to join the ranks of 226 active members.

Watches will be presented by Dana Corporation President R. E. Carpenter.

The Quarter-Century club was founded on Nov. 29, 1948, at which time William Walker was chosen president. By-laws were ratified on May 5, 1949.

The popular Walker headed the club until this year when Louis Wagoner was named to succeed him.

Among the club's membership are four father-and-son teams and 15 brother combinations.

Father-and-son teams are Maurice Himes and Merle Himes, Vincent Grimm and Vincent P. Grimm, Samuel Shirey and Kenneth and Malcolm Shirey, Broder Spangenberg and Otto Spangen-

ABC Hobby Show Opens Today at Local Armory

You can watch baby chicks pop out of the shell, you can examine a glistening old car and you can send a radio message to your boy overseas, (free of charge) all at the American Business club hobby show in the King street Armory today.

And for an entertaining night, for a look-see at 78 exhibits, you will be helping the cerebral palsy fund, buying braces and providing care for children afflicted with the crippling disease.

Chairman Joe L. Bowen last night asserted, "Every cent taken in at the show will be turned over to the cerebral palsy fund." (Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 30 cents for children).

The exhibit will open officially this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and visitors are welcome to stroll the aisles until 10 p. m.

The same hours will prevail tomorrow.

ONE EXHIBITOR will hatch baby chicks in a glass incubator.

Bowen called the show a $100,000 affair and pegged the top exhibit, a $25,000 antique auto. Six old autos line the aisles.

Youngest exhibitor is Betsy Hoffman, 8½, with a line of miniature dolls, and the oldest exhibitor is the Rev. Arthur H. Simpson, 82, who has contributed his collection of oil paintings to display racks.

"One of the fine features of the show will be the free radio messages to service personnel. The Pottstown Amateur Radio association is sponsoring this. If a mother wants to sent a message to her son overseas, the association will take

Scarcity of Water In Two Boroughs Brings Vital Plea

The boroughs of Collegeville and Trappe are so low on water these days that water department officials have asked residents to use it sparingly.

"The wells are lower now than they have been at any time," Charles Smedley, head of the joint water department for the two boroughs, said last night.

The main reason for the officials' warning was brought about by a misconception resulting from the recent snow storm, Smedley said.

"Most people thought the snow would fill the wells," he said, "but the wells got not one drop of water from the recent snow and rains," he said.

"The deepest penetration of water was about 22 inches," he added.

AS A RESULT, people have become lax in their use of water. There has been a water ban in effect in the two boroughs for the past two months.

Smedley warned that unless people restrict themselves voluntarily, the council will be forced to take more drastic action.

On a normal day, the two boroughs use about 130,000 gallons of water.

"We want to get it down to about 110,000 gallons a day. We know it can be done because before the snow and rains, people were using only that amount," he said.

Area Man in Hospital

Charles Edleman, 35, of 275 Green street, Royersford, an employe of the B. F. Goodrich company, Oaks, will undergo surgery at Memorial hospital this morning.

Edleman, who is suffering from hemorrhoids, was admitted to the hospital last night.

Local Girl to Seek Severance of Ties In Bigamy Case

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The young Pottstown girl who was duped into marrying a 26-year-old veteran who already had a wife and three-year-old child in New York City said yesterday she was going to seek an annulment of the bigamous marriage.

The confessed bigamist, Neal Steinbraker, of 1128 High street, in Pottstown hospital with a back ailment, said that when he had paid the penalty for his bigamy, he would not make any attempt to see the Pottstown young woman again.

"I've already hurt Nancy enough," he said from the hospital bed.

Steinbraker is being held in default of $1500 bail. Unless he can post bail in the meantime, he will be committed to Montgomery county prison to await trial as soon as he is released from the hospital.

The 26-year-old Army veteran was taken to the hospital after his Wednesday night hearing. While being led away toward a basement cell in borough hall, he fell down the steps.

He said yesterday he had aggravated a back injury for which

Woman Injured When Hit by Car In Mid-Borough

A 69-year-old Pottstown woman was injured last night when she was struck by a car while crossing Hanover street at High street.

Treated and discharged from Pottstown hospital, where she was taken in the Good Will ambulance, was Mrs. Keziah Bushey, of 23 North Hanover street.

He told police he was traveling north on Hanover street and was about to make a left hand turn onto High street.

He was watching pedestrians cross the intersection.

When he saw her it was too late to stop, he said.

Boyertown Lad 'Good'

Paul Kersher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Kersher, 215 Shaner street, Boyertown, underwent surgery yesterday.

STEEL SHIPMENTS NOTED

Better Be Good Kids! Santa to Visit Friday

Santa Claus is coming to town.

Next Friday is the day, and that's only a week off.

The chubby old fellow will arrive at Pottstown's Reading station on the 9:31 o'clock train Friday morning, and he'll have his pack of gifts with him.

At the station he'll be met by a police escort and a welcoming committee of happy children and smiling adults.

A special automobile—an open convertible—will be waiting there too. From it he'll wave to his admirers while riding down High street.

The police escort will take Santa as far as the Hippodrome theater in his shiny car. There he will greet even more of his young friends.

A FREE one-hour show for the youngsters will be held in the theater at 10 a. m., with cartoon pictures and other movies that will delight the kids.

Mailbox Set Up In Mercury Office For Santa Letters

The mailbox that is especially for letters going to Santa Claus near the North Pole has been set up in The Mercury office.

If you want your child—or any child you know—to get a letter direct FROM Santa Claus in Fairbanks, Alaska, then this is the mailbox you want to use.

Once again, as he has the past few years, Santa has agreed to write letters to many boys and girls before Christmas.

He's doing it with the help of The Mercury, Pan American World Airways and Horace A. Hughes, secretary-manager of the Pottstown Automobile club.

Man Wakes Up In Time to Prevent Death From Gas

Mrs. George Lasky, 555 Howard street, Stowe, said that her husband awoke earlier than usual yesterday morning and walked downstairs from the bedroom to the oil heater in the dining room.

On entering the room, he saw that it was filled with smoke, soot and fumes.

He peered into the stove but couldn't see the flames. So he opened the side door and suddenly billowing flames shot out, nearly burning him.

The room immediately filled with more soot and fumes.

Lasky got the situation under control, but as Mrs. Lasky said last night, "I suppose if he hadn't awakened when he did, the house would have been full of gas. We were lucky."

A 25-year-old Stowe man was in "serious" condition last night in Pottstown hospital with a head injury suffered when his jeep was knocked over by a car at Route 422 and Grosstown road in Stowe in heavy fog yesterday morning at 6:45 o'clock.

M. Robert Webb, 421 Center street, was admitted to the hospital with a possible skull fracture, multiple gashes of the face and head and multiple bruises.

He had been driving south on Grosstown road, crossing Route 422, on his way to work at Pottstown Metal Products division plant, when his jeep was bowled over.

West Pottsgrove Patrolman Anthony J. Canceliere, who investigated, learned that the left side of Webb's jeep was struck by a 1950 sedan driven by Henry E. Gettle, 36, Morristown RD 3, Lebanon county.

Gettle had been driving toward Pottstown in the fog. Both he and Webb had been alone at the time.

Four Men Released After Stay in Lockup

The four men who were picked up on suspicion early Wednesday morning were released yesterday by Pottstown police after questioning failed to produce any evidence against them.

The men were picked up after local police received a tip that the Rosedale diner, 1410 High street, was going to be burglarized. Two of the men were from Reading, the other two from Stony Creek Mills.

Here's Another Winner!

Today it's a young man who falls within The Mercury's magic circle. By so doing, he is automatically $2.50 richer—that is, if he makes his claim at The Mercury office before 5 p. m. today. Yesterday's award went to Mrs. Merrill Rhoads, Schuylkill road, Phoenixville.

She was looking for a hair net in Newberry's department store when the photographer snapped her picture. Mrs. Rhoads said she does much of her shopping in Pottstown—and why not! Especialy these days when the stores are crammed full of the latest in Christmas gift suggestions.

School Heads Here Invited to Dinner

Pottstown's school principals and supervisors, along with other borough citizens, have been invited to the dinner in honor of the three new school board members, to be held Dec. 7 at 6:30 p. m. at the Senior High school cafeteria.

Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, said last night that the swearing in of the new directors by Montgomery County Judge William Dannehower would be conducted at 6 p. m. at the school administration building.

The dinner, with Judge Dannehower as guest speaker, will start at 6:30 p. m., and the regular school board meeting will be held at 8 p. m. at the school administration building.

The three new board members, all Republicans, are Herbert R. Maack, Douglas V. O'Dell and Herbert G. Stauffer.

Sun Prompts Leap In Temperature

Summer, like a vacationer who hates to head back home, stayed on in Pottstown another day yesterday.

Temperatures in the low 60's made the borough's Christmas decorations seem out of place.

But the whole production was under the direction of Mr. Sol.

Not til he walked on the stage did things start moving.

At 6 a. m., the mercury was sluggish at the 35 mark. But with the sun's appearance, temperatures soared to 39 by 9 a. m., past 50 at noon, up to the high of 62 at 3 p. m.

CARE OF WALL TO WALL CARPETING

To maintain the new appearance of carpeting, experience proves that spots should be removed as they appear rather than doing an over-all cleaning job once or twice each year.

There is available a foam cleaner that does not leave rings when removing spots since it contains no naptha or solvents. The use of this foam when spots appear, preserves the new appearance and life of carpeting. This cleaner, known as Fina Foam, may be purchased at Block's, High and Charlotte Sts., Pottstown, Phone 3010.

It is of no use running; to set out betimes is the main point.—La Fontaine.

The Fifty-Dollar Club

ARE there 200 persons in the Pottstown area who'd contribute $50 to join the "Fifty-Dollar Club" and help erase the United Fund campaign deficit?

Dr. Alice E. Sheppard, Pottstown physician, suggested forming a $50 club to raise another $10,000. She said she'd start it off with her contribution.

It's a great suggestion. It's worthwhile because the United Fund agencies—and there are 26 of them—need the money sorely. Pottstown's hospitals needs the funds, the Visiting Nurses need money, the Salvation Army may have to curtail its charity if it doesn't get its budget request.

Are there 200 persons who'd like to give (many of them would be giving again) to make sure there's no suffering this Winter?

Let them speak up now!

If they want to join the "Fifty-Dollar Club," let them send in their checks, their money to The Mercury. It'll be turned over to the United Fund, of course, and public acknowledgement will be made.

If there's sufficient interest, special effort will be made to the form the club. But membership must be voluntary. Who's the first for joining?

A-Bomb Secret Kept

WHEN President Truman first broke the news to Stalin about the A-bomb at the Potsdam conference in 1945, the Russian leader showed no previous knowledge of the development of the bomb or awareness of its significance, Winston Churchill said in the final installment of his Memoirs, currently appearing in Life magazine.

The Anglo-American leaders decided to tell Stalin about the bomb after one of the daily conferences at Potsdam, Churchill recalls.

"I saw the President go up to Stalin. I was perhaps five yards away, and I watched with the closest attention the momentous talk. I can see it all as if it were yesterday. Stalin seemed to be delighted. A new bomb! Of extraordinary power! Probably decisive on the whole Japanese war! What a bit of luck! This was my impression at the moment, and I was sure that he had no idea of the significance of what he was being told."

Churchill says at Potsdam he and President Truman did not discuss whether the atomic bomb should be used or not.

"British consent in principle to the use of the weapon had been given before the test had taken place. The final decision now lay in the main with President Truman, who had the weapon; but I never doubted what it would be, nor have I ever doubted since that he was right."

In his memoirs, Churchill also praises President Truman's firm stand in the early difficulties with Tito over Trieste, which arose with Yugoslav occupation of Northeastern Italy as the Germans retreated.

"Both the Americans and ourselves were not only determined to prevent any frontiers being settled in this manner before the Peace Treaty, but also intended to secure Trieste, with its splendid port, as the essential supply point for future occupation zones in Austria," Churchill writes.

Truman immediately agreed to take "any necessary steps to effect Tito's withdrawal," and later proposed that Anglo-American forces should make a show of force by land and air, timing it to coincide with the rejection of Tito's demand for Allied withdrawal.

Churchill does not approve of America's hasty action in giving up its areas of military conquest to Russian occupation at the close of the war in Europe. In his Memoirs the British leader states that his main concern in the spring of 1945 was to reach a European settlement with Russia before British and American military forces were moved out of the area by demobilization or re-deployment to the Far East.

President Truman, however, felt that the previous "tripartite agreement about the occupation of Germany, approved by President Roosevelt, made it impossible to delay the withdrawal of American troops from the Soviet Zone in order to press the settlement of other problems," Churchill writes.

Churchill calls this decision of President Truman's "a fateful milestone for mankind," but says that Truman's only alternative was to depart from and repudiate his predecessor's policy, "with the likelihood of having to face accusations of breach of faith."

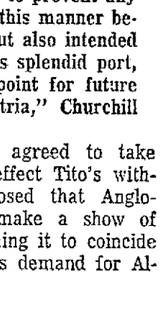
PUNKIN CORNERS,
November 19.

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by The Mercury where South Pottstown would be ravaged if all Pennsylvania traffic deaths occurred there. But it isn't so. A community like South Pottstown that could stand so many floods certainly wouldn't let a few accidents bother it!



A Mercury writer said dry cleaners found in men's pants, among other things, some lace panties! I bet every wife in Pottstown is looking questioningly at her husband these days!

And say: A Kansas City motorist crashed into the side of a freight train, complained he had honked horn!. Wal, some railroads aren't cooperative!

Hopin' you air the same,

Reader Asks PTA Money Accounting

What Happened to the Money?

To the Editor: The PTA from New Hanover and Upper Frederick townships was going along very nice till this last meeting. Then something very queer came up.

A couple months ago these PTA members decided to have a Christmas party for all the school children of their townships. So they decided to raise the money they would have a rummage and a cake sale, which they did and made a very nice profit.

So at the last October meeting they found out that they could not find a place big enough and close to take care of all the children. Then it was decided to buy a little gift for all the children, which was the proper thing to do.

At this November meeting most of the members of the PTA decided to give nothing at all to the children. Now may I ask these members just why did you ask these people to help out with these sales and also ask for donations if you didn't intend to keep your word.

I know that most of these members are well educated and that most of them go to church on Sundays. Surely they should know right from wrong. If we members of this PTA cannot put our faith in these people then who in God's world can we put it in?

Please use this money for people who helped to raise and donate. For what you promised to use it for, don't stop now with the wonderful start you have and the good support you won!

If you go back on your word you may as well fold up, for you will lose your support. Without your support you will fade away.

Let Men Pull Own Noses

To the Editor: A lot of crust that worthless heel Cute Kid ("Women's Mouths Bigger," Readers Say, Nov. 18) has to say women's mouths are getting bigger. Especially because they're puffing on cigarets all the time.

Men's mouths are as big as a yawning hippo's! I don't know what Cute Kid meant rightly, but I guess he meant women's always were popping off. He ain't seen the men in action. They can sling more dirt faster and farther than any women I know. And you know what they always talk about. Yes, it's women. And not too kindly either.

At least us women can talk about clothes and hats and our babies. Who ever heard of us talking about our husbands. (Joke!)

Likes Socialism Yarn

To the Editor: Thank you for the fine article on Socialism. (Mercury, "Local Figures Recall Socialism in Heyday," Nov. 17).

Recently a world-recognized magazine published an editorial on the passing of the Socialist party from the American scene because we have advanced to an economic status of democratized socialism.

The pioneers of Socialism performed their function well.

Certainly no society can be happy (the ideal achievement of a democratic society) if a few people drive solid-gold, custom-built Cadillacs while the masses must grope for unbuttered crumbs of stale bread.

Pottstown MRS. MYRTLE VAN HORN

Dislikes Double Parking

To the Editor: If there's one thing that gripes me more than any other, I'd say it was these sloppy drivers who double park on High street and stick way out into the traffic lanes.

They not only slow up traffic considerably, but are a prime cause for accidents and near accidents.

There is just about enough room to double park on one side of High street and still permit cars to pass by in their regular lane.

Is there a law against this?

If there isn't, we ought to have one, and if there is, maybe the police could enforce it with a few fines.

Pottstown READER

Raps Liquor Ban

To the Editor: One of the biggest things I find wrong with Pottstown (and Pennsylvania) is the fact that bars don't remain open on Sundays. All week long I thirst for a drink of beer and discover that on Saturday after midnight I can't go down to a local bar and enjoy the company of local friends over a cool glass of beer.

Is it sacreligious just because a person wants a drink of beer on Sunday?

I believe some one passed a law a long time ago, someone who was a teetotaler who had it in for people who liked a glass of beer now and then.

WASHINGTON

White Episode Causes Democrat Rank Closure

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—The Brownell-Velde mismanagement of the Harry Dexter White episode has rallied and solidified Democrats on and off Capitol hill, including even pro-Eisenhower elements in Dixie. It may help to heal feuds which flared at the 1952 convention and election, when Ike carried four southern states.

The research bureau at Democratic national headquarters has been kept busy and overworked with requests from Truman and anti-Truman Democrats throughout the country, asking for material to minimize or refute the Attorney-General's charge against the former President and members of his cabinet.

It has boiled up into an angry Party reaction, regardless of previous personal and political differences within the opposition family.

The Democrats are not closing ranks behind Truman himself so much as behind the institution of their Party. They regard the belated Brownell effort as an attempt to assure longtime Republican retention of Congress and the White House by pinning a Red badge on both FDR and Harry S. Truman. As such, it becomes an attack on every Democrat seeking office now or in the future, local, state and national.

The Brownell attack has brought a formidable Democratic satirist back to the partisan firing line before he had intended to re-enlist—namely, Adlai E. Stevenson, Ike's 1952 opponent and a possible 1956 foe.

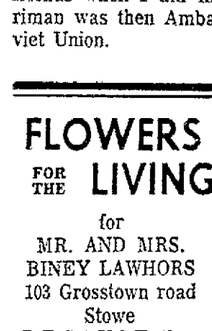
BERATES IKE'S DELAYS: The philosophic Stevenson had been counseling partisan consultants to cooperate with the Eisenhower Administration "when it was right." He had indicated that he would give Ike at least a year in office before indulging in criticism. On foreign policy, Eisenhower has generally followed the principles proposed by Stevenson when he reported to the White House after a five-month tour of 30 countries.



Averell Harriman

But in a tape-recorded speech at St. Paul, Minn, the past week, Stevenson cut loose. Referring to Ike's delays in meeting farm, defense, natural resources and other problems, the mild, urbane Illinoisan declared that "the people are getting their fill of slick talk and foolish promises."

Another erstwhile Eisenhower pal who will soon hit him hard is Averell Harriman, another potential 1956, Democratic nominee. As a wartime diplomat and economic aide, he had become a warm, bridge-playing friend of Eisenhower. He preferred Ike to Truman as the Democrats' Presidential candidate in 1948.

Now, with the help of Democratic researchers at Party headquarters here, he is preparing a speech recalling Eisenhower's relations with the Russians. At about the same time that Truman was promoting White over FBI objections, Ike declared in a speech before the Kremlin dictators, according to Harriman, that "I always feel I am among friends when I am in Moscow." Harriman was then Ambassador to the Soviet Union.

Gossip in Gotham

Fisticuffs are becoming the vogue again along the cafe society circuit. Pat Ward, famed for her white-collar role in the Jelke vice trial, has been sporting a black eye almost as pretty as one of Pietro Mele's—but she didn't get hers from the cops. Her steadiest "admirer" took umbrage at something she said.

Lena Horne

And an out-of-town night-club owner had his skull fractured in a Greenwich Village spot the other night because he insisted on taking home the boss's girl — who happened to be his ex-wife. He's in the hospital now, refusing to talk to police or even tell where the fracas happened.

The Frank Fontaines (he's the comic with eight children) are expecting a ninth!

Lisa Chickering, the new vocalist at an East Side spot who is getting the "social" build-up as a piano company heiress, looks awfully familiar to night-club denizens from way back. Wasn't she one of Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe showgirls and a Broadway musical comedy chorine at least seven years ago?

The eight major hotels in Las Vegas will present a firm offer to Jim Norris—including a $200,000 cash deposit—to get the Olson-Gavilan fight for their town, using the defunct race track as the arena.

JACK WEBB, the "Dragnet" man, is looking for a buyer for the series more earnestly than he's looking for video criminals. Object: capital gains.

A "dream romance" is taking place in the show world right now, but both the devastatingly attractive man and the world's most alluring woman are acting like espionage agents about being seen together . . . Leland Hayward is so confident of the success of "The Prescott Proposals" he's had many of the two-week cast contracts rewritten into two-year deals with salary uppages . . . New York's midtown landlords are planning to petition for another rent rise when the real estate taxes go up.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ELLEN M is a vivacious but plump wife.

"Dr. Crane, I live in Muncie, Ind.," she informed me after my Bible class one Sunday.

"And we have had a dieting campaign in our State whereby we have tried to take off 10,000,000 pounds from 500,000 fatties.

"It's purpose has been to reduce high blood pressure and prevent heart attacks.

"But I have failed to go on a diet yet, although I am much too heavy. My weight is now 158. Yet it was only 118 when I married!

"You once said a slender wife is more seductive to her husband. Well, my husband and I are drifting into a platonic role and I'd like to revive the sweetheart relationship again.

"So how can I get back into a size 12 frock again?"

START DIETING TODAY—not tomorrow! Most dieters always say, "I'll begin tomorrow." But tomorrow never comes.

Try to get several friends or members of your family to join you on your dieting program. For you can help "sell" each other. This is one of the bits of strategy in the Alcoholics Anonymous plan, too.

Shrink your stomach fast. If it now demands one quart of contents before it registers "full," it will continue to gnaw and make you uncomfortable unless you deliberately teach it the new habit of registering "full" on a smaller volume.

A quick way to neutralize your hunger pangs the first few days and to show a bigger weight loss, is to go low on fluid input. So set yourself a ten-day goal. You can shed ten pounds of ugly weight in that brief time by following this program:

LIMIT YOUR FOOD input to 800 calories a day for women, and 1200 for men. But be sure to include from 400 to 600 calories in protein foods, for the body does not have protein stored away, though it has plenty of fat and sugar.

To help kill your appetite, limit yourself to one full glass (8 oz.) of liquid the first day, unless you are doing hard physical work where you sweat a great deal.

On the second day, you may allot yourself two glasses of total fluids, which means soups, milk, fruit juices, water, caffeine beverages, etc.

The third day, move up to three glasses, and stay on that three-glass a day quota through the tenth day.

DEEP ARE THE ROOTS

Hollywood

By DON HOPE

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19 — If you recall, Jane Powell made her public "renouncement" regarding the Gene Nelson love-affair, only a few days after similarly stating that they were "more in love than ever." It's obvious the Powell girl is out to date others beside Gene—if she dates him at all in the next few weeks. But I think there is a great deal more to all this renunciation act, if an act it is, than meets the eye. I agree with many who are in a position to suspect, if not to KNOW, that their entire seeming bust-up may have been considered a very wise move for the present, since Nelson's wife, Miriam, is being so adamant about not giving him a divorce unless she gets a settlement he deems out of all proportion to his income. Perhaps, if Mrs. Nelson doesn't think his urge for freedom is so great, she'll come to more reasonable terms — and sooner.

WITH THE Ken Tobeys, who parted two weeks ago, the picture is more definite. They're back together and everyone hopes the reuniting will last . . . Now it's Cary Grant who is being sought as the male star opposite Debbie Reynolds in "Susan Slept Here." This RKO picture was practically in production few days ago, when at the last moment Robert Mitchum told his boss, Howard Hughes, he wouldn't make it! So, for no less than the tenth times, "Susan" faced further delay . . . A picture that is being speeded up is the expensive Metro music-film, "Student Prince" But money has naught to do with the rush. This film, supposed to start next month, will now reach celluloid next week because its feminine star, Ann Blyth will present her husband, Dr. James McNulty with their first baby early next Summer.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ELDERLY PERSONS whose bodies are working under the handicap of a chronic disease, seem more prone to catch infections secondary to their chronic ailment.

These aged and ill adults, suffering perhaps from diabetes, asthma, bronchitis, or other diseases, do not have the power to withstand these inter-current infections, as they are known medically.

Therefore, methods have been sought for preventing these infections before they develop.

Pneumonia complicates many chronic diseases and can terminate the lives of countless elderly people, particularly those suffering from diseases of the heart, diabetes, asthma, or bronchitis.

In order to prevent the development of inter-current infections, administration of one of the antibiotic drugs, over a long period of time, was tried out.

It was found by Dr. Douglas H. Sprunt that small dosages of aureomycin were able to prevent many types of infections and did not alter the status of the beneficial germs present in the body.

Elderly people were given the drug for periods of as long as 19 months. It was found that respiratory infections decreased at least 50 percent in those receiving aureomycin.

In a similar group that also had aureomycin, many of the persons felt improvement, and such diseases as asthma and bronchitis were helped, too.

The dosage of aureomycin given daily did not cause many side effects, and there were no bad results even after prolonged administration of the drug. There was no evidence of any loss of antibiotic power.

Therefore, it would seem that the giving of one of the antibiotic drugs might be helpful as a preventive method used against dangerous inter-current infections in elderly people.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

L. L.: My brother's eyeballs frequently shift horizontally, from one side to another. What can be causing it?

ANSWER: From your description, it would seem that your brother is suffering from nystagmus. This may be caused by a vision difficulty or poor-fitting glasses, or eyestrain. However, some nervous disorder may also be the cause.

The Fifty-Dollar Club

ARE there 200 persons in the Pottstown area who'd contribute $50 to join the "Fifty-Dollar Club" and help erase the United Fund campaign deficit?

Dr. Alice E. Sheppard, Pottstown physician, suggested forming a $50 club to raise another $10,000. She said she'd start it off with her contribution.

It's a great suggestion. It's worthwhile because the United Fund agencies —and there are 26 of them—need the money sorely. Pottstown's hospitals needs the funds, the Visiting Nurses need money, the Salvation Army may have to curtail its charity if it doesn't get its budget request.

Are there 200 persons who'd like to give (many of them would be giving again) to make sure there's no suffering this Winter?

Let them speak up now!

If they want to join the "Fifty-Dollar Club," let them send in their checks, their money to The Mercury. It'll be turned over to the United Fund, of course, and public acknowledgement will be made.

If there's sufficient interest, special effort will be made to the form the club. But membership must be voluntary. Who's the first for joining?

A-Bomb Secret Kept

WHEN President Truman first broke the news to Stalin about the A-bomb at the Potsdam conference in 1945, the Russian leader showed no previous knowledge of the development of the bomb or awareness of its significance, Winston Churchill said in the final installment of his Memoirs, currently appearing in Life magazine.

The Anglo-American leaders decided to tell Stalin about the bomb after one of the daily conferences at Potsdam, Churchill recalls.

"I saw the President go up to Stalin. I was perhaps five yards away, and I watched with the closest attention the momentous talk. I can see it all as if it were yesterday. Stalin seemed to be delighted. A new bomb! Of extraordinary power! Probably decisive on the whole Japanese war! What a bit of luck! This was my impression at the moment, and I was sure that he had no idea of the significance of what he was being told."

Churchill says at Potsdam he and President Truman did not discuss whether the atomic bomb should be used or not.

"British consent in principle to the use of the weapon had been given before the test had taken place. The final decision now lay in the main with President Truman, who had the weapon; but I never doubted what it would be, nor have I ever doubted since that he was right."

In his memoirs, Churchill also praises President Truman's firm stand in the early difficulties with Tito over Trieste, which arose with Yugoslav occupation of Northeastern Italy as the Germans retreated.

"Both the Americans and ourselves were not only determined to prevent any frontiers being settled in this manner before the Peace Treaty, but also intended to secure Trieste, with its splendid port, as the essential supply point for future occupation zones in Austria," Churchill writes.

Truman immediately agreed to take "any necessary steps to effect Tito's withdrawal," and later proposed that Anglo-American forces should make a show of force by land and air, timing it to coincide with the rejection of Tito's demand for Allied withdrawal.

Churchill does not approve of America's hasty action in giving up its areas of military conquest to Russian occupation at the close of the war in Europe. In his Memoirs the British leader states that his main concern in the spring of 1945 was to reach a European settlement with Russia before British and American military forces were moved out of the area by demobilization or re-deployment to the Far East.

President Trumar, however, felt that the previous "tripartite agreement about the occupation of Germany, approved by President Roosevelt, made it impossible to delay the withdrawal of American troops from the Soviet Zone in order to press the settlement of other problems," Churchill writes.

Churchill calls this decision of President Truman's "a fateful milestone for mankind," but says that Truman's only alternative was to depart from and repudiate his predecessor's policy, "with the likelihood of having to face accusations of breach of faith."

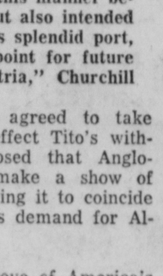
Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by The Mercury where South Pottstown would be ravaged if all Pennsylvania traffic deaths occurred there. But it isn't so. A community like South Pottstown that could stand so many floods certainly wouldn't let a few accidents bother it!



A Mercury writer said dry cleaners found in men's pants, among other things, some lace panties! I bet every wife in Pottstown is looking questioningly at her husband these days!

And say: A Kansas City motorist crashed into the side of a freight train, complained he had honked horn! Wal, some railroads aren't cooperative!

Reader Asks PTA Money Accounting

What Happened to the Money?

To the Editor: The PTA from New Hanover and Upper Frederick townships was going along very nice till this last meeting. Then something very queer came up.

A couple months ago these PTA members decided to have a Christmas party for all the school children of their townships. So they decided to raise the money they would have a rummage and a cake sale, which they did and made a very nice profit.

So at the last October meeting they found out that they could not find a place big enough and close to take care of all the children. Then it was decided to buy a little gift for all the children, which was the proper thing to do.

At this November meeting most of the members of the PTA decided to give nothing at all to the children. Now may I ask these members just why did you ask these people to help out with these sales and also ask for donations if you didn't intend to keep your word.

I know that most of these members are well educated and that most of them go to church on Sundays. Surely they should know right from wrong. If we members of this PTA cannot put our faith in these people then who in God's world can we put it in?

Please use this money for people who helped to raise and donate. For what you promised to use it for, don't stop now with the wonderful start you have and the good support you won!

If you go back on your word you may as well fold up, for you will lose your support. Without your support you will fade away.

Let Men Pull Own Noses

To the Editor: A lot of crust that worthless heel Cute Kid ("Women's Mouths Bigger," Readers Say, Nov. 18) has to say women's mouths are getting bigger. Especially because they're puffing on cigarets all the time.

Men's mouths are as big as a yawning hippo's! I don't know what Cute Kid meant rightly, but I guess he meant women's always were popping off. He ain't seen the men in action. They can sling more dirt faster and farther than any women I know. And you know what they always talk about. Yes, it's women. And not too kindly either.

At least us women can talk about clothes and hats and our babies. Who ever heard of us talking about our husbands. (Joke!)

To the Editor: Thank you for the fine article on Socialism. (Mercury, "Local Figures Recall Socialism in Heyday," Nov. 17).

Recently a world-recognized magazine published an editorial on the passing of the Socialist party from the American scene because we have advanced to an economic status of democratized socialism.

The pioneers of Socialism performed their function well.

Certainly no society can be happy (the ideal achievement of a democratic society) if a few people drive solid-gold, custom-built Cadillacs while the masses must grope for unbuttered crumbs of stale bread.

Dislikes Double Parking

To the Editor: If there's one thing that gripes me more than any other, I'd say it was these sloppy drivers who double park on High street and stick way out into the traffic lanes.

They not only slow up traffic considerably, but are a prime cause for accidents and near accidents.

There is just about enough room to double park on one side of High street and still permit cars to pass by in their regular lane.

Is there a law against this?

If there isn't, we ought to have one, and if there is, maybe the police could enforce it with a few fines.

Raps Liquor Ban

To the Editor: One of the biggest things I find wrong with Pottstown (and Pennsylvania) is the fact that bars don't remain open on Sundays. All week long I thirst for a drink of beer and discover that on Saturday after midnight I can't go down to a local bar and enjoy the company of local friends over a cool glass of beer.

Is it sacreligious just because a person wants a drink of beer on Sunday?

I believe some one passed a law a long time ago, someone who was a teetotaler who had it in for people who liked a glass of beer now and then.

WASHINGTON

White Episode Causes Democrat Rank Closure

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—The Brownell-Velde mismanagement of the Harry Dexter White episode has rallied and solidified Democrats on and off Capitol hill, including even pro-Eisenhower elements in Dixie. It may help to heal feuds which flared at the 1952 convention and election, when Ike carried four southern states.

The research bureau at Democratic national headquarters has been kept busy and overworked with requests from Truman and anti-Truman Democrats throughout the country, asking for material to minimize or refute the Attorney-General's charge against the former President and members of his cabinet.

It has boiled up into an angry Party reaction, regardless of previous personal and political differences within the opposition family.

The Democrats are not closing ranks behind Truman himself so much as behind the institution of their Party. They regard the belated Brownell effort as an attempt to assure longtime Republican retention of Congress and the White House by pinning a Red badge on both FDR and Harry S. Truman. As such, it becomes an attack on every Democrat seeking office now or in the future, local, state and national.

The Brownell attack has brought a formidable Democratic satirist back to the partisan firing line before he had intended to re-enlist—namely, Adlai E. Stevenson, Ike's 1952 opponent and a possible 1956 foe.

BERATES IKE'S DELAYS: The philosophic Stevenson had been counseling partisan consultants to cooperate with the Eisenhower Administration "when it was right." He had indicated that he would give Ike at least a year in office before indulging in criticism. On foreign policy, Eisenhower has generally followed the principles proposed by Stevenson when he reported to the White House after a five-month tour of 30 countries.

Averell Harriman

But in a tape-recorded speech at St. Paul, Minn., the past week, Stevenson cut loose. Referring to Ike's delays in meeting farm, defense, natural resources and other problems, the mild, urbane Illinoisan declared that "the people are getting their fill of slick talk and foolish promises."

Another erstwhile Eisenhower pal who will soon hit him hard is Averell Harriman, another potential 1956, Democratic nominee. As a wartime diplomat and economic aide, he had become a warm, bridge-playing friend of Eisenhower. He preferred Ike to Truman as the Democrats' Presidential candidate in 1948.

Now, with the help of Democratic researchers at Party headquarters here, he is preparing a speech recalling Eisenhower's relations with the Russians. At about the same time that Truman was promoting White over FBI objections, Ike declared in a speech before the Kremlin dictators, according to Harriman, that "I always feel I am among friends when I am in Moscow." Harriman was then Ambassador to the Soviet Union.

The Worry Clinic

ELLEN M. is a vivacious but plump wife.

"Dr. Crane, I live in Muncie, Ind.," she informed me after my Bible class one Sunday.

"And we have had a dieting campaign in our State whereby we have tried to take off 10,000,000 pounds from 500,000 fatties.

"It's purpose has been to reduce high blood pressure and prevent heart attacks.

"But I have failed to go on a diet yet, although I am much too heavy. My weight is now 158. Yet it was only 118 when I married!

"You once said a slender wife is more seductive to her husband. Well, my husband and I are drifting into a platonic role and I'd like to revive the sweetheart relationship again.

"So how can I get back into a size 12 frock again?"

START DIETING TODAY—not tomorrow! Most dieters always say, "I'll begin tomorrow." But tomorrow never comes.

Try to get several friends or members of your family to join you on your dieting program. For you can help "sell" each other. This is one of the bits of strategy in the Alcoholics Anonymous plan, too.

Shrink your stomach fast. If it now demands one quart of contents before it registers "full," it will continue to gnaw and make you uncomfortable unless you deliberately teach it the new habit of registering "full" on a smaller volume.

A quick way to neutralize your hunger pangs the first few days and to show a bigger weight loss, is to go low on fluid input. So set yourself a ten-day goal. You can shed ten pounds of ugly weight in that brief time by following this program:

LIMIT YOUR FOOD input to 800 calories a day for women, and 1200 for men. But be sure to include from 400 to 600 calories in protein foods, for the body does not have protein stored away, though it has plenty of fat and sugar.

To help kill your appetite, limit yourself to one full glass (8 oz.) of liquid the first day, unless you are doing hard physical work where you sweat a great deal.

On the second day, you may allot yourself two glasses of total fluids, which means soups, milk, fruit juices, water, caffeine beverages, etc.

The third day, move up to three glasses, and stay on that three-glass a day quota through the tenth day.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19 — If you recall, Jane Powell made her public "renouncement" regarding the Gene Nelson love-affair, only a few days after similarly stating that they were "more in love than ever." It's obvious the Powell girl is out to date others beside Gene—if she dates him at all in the next few weeks. But I think there is a great deal more to all this renunciation act, if an act it is, than meets the eye. I agree with many who are in a position to suspect, if not to KNOW, that their entire seeming bust-up may have been considered a very wise move for the present, since Nelson's wife, Miriam, is being so adamant about not giving him a divorce unless she gets a settlement he deems out of all proportion to his income. Perhaps, if Mrs. Nelson doesn't think his urge for freedom is so great, she'll come to more reasonable terms — and sooner.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ELDERLY PERSONS whose bodies are working under the handicap of a chronic disease, seem more prone to catch infections secondary to their chronic ailment.

These aged and ill adults, suffering perhaps from diabetes, asthma, bronchitis, or other diseases, do not have the power to withstand these inter-current infections, as they are known medically.

Therefore, methods have been sought for preventing these infections before they develop.

Pneumonia complicates many chronic diseases and can terminate the lives of countless elderly people, particularly those suffering from diseases of the heart, diabetes, asthma, or bronchitis.

In order to prevent the development of inter-current infections, administration of one of the antibiotic drugs, over a long period of time, was tried out.

It was found by Dr. Douglas H. Sprunt that small dosages of aureomycin were able to prevent many types of infections and did not alter the status of the beneficial germs present in the body.

Elderly people were given the drug for periods of as long as 19 months. It was found that respiratory infections decreased at least 50 percent in those receiving aureomycin.

In a similar group that also had aureomycin, many of the persons felt improvement, and such diseases as asthma and bronchitis were helped, too.

The dosage of aureomycin given daily did not cause many side effects, and there were no bad results even after prolonged administration of the drug. There was no evidence of any loss of antibiotic power.

Therefore, it would seem that the giving of one of the antibiotic drugs might be helpful as a preventive method used against dangerous inter-current infections in elderly people.

High School Set to Conduct Annual Yuletime Concert

Benjamin Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols" will be sung again at the Pottstown Senior High school's annual Christmas Choral concert to be given Dec. 8 at 8:15 in the school auditorium.

Jeanne Moore Miller, an alumna of the school, will be on hand to play the harp accompaniment. The work was scored for that instrument to accompany a choir of treble voices.

This composition will be presented by the girls' chorus of the school directed by Edward F. O'Neill, vocal director in the high school.

Jacqueline Andes, Dolores Bieleski, Donna Boyer, LoKiel Brinton, Dawn Brownback, Ann Chaplin, Patricia Dolas, Gail Ebert, Helen Ginder, Judy Glenney.

Bloodmobile Visit Nets 104 Pints Here

Chairman John F. Miller, of the Red Cross blood service, Northern branch, reported 19 of the 104 pints were given by pledged donors of the Levengood Dairies.

The bloodmobile was on hand at the Armory from 12:30 to 6 p. m.

There was a lull in blood-taking from 1:30 to 2:15.

The next visit of the bloodmobie will be on Jan. 6. The site of the visit will be announced later.

One Killed, Five Hurt In School Explosion

HEPHZIBAH, Ga., Nov. 19 (AP)—An explosion ripped a school gymnasium here today, killing a First grade pupil and injuring five.

Six-year-old Gilda Martin was playing outside the Haphzibah school when the explosion occurred. She was crushed under a collapsing wall and died a few minutes after reaching University hospital in nearby Augusta.

A little playmate, Sandra Lane, also six, had her leg broken.

Two teen-agers, Eugene Cadle and Clarence Inglett, both 15, were burned seriously. Twelve-year-old Cecil Smith and Vernon Blackwell, 11, were burned less severely.

Bloodmobile Visit Nets 104 Pints Here

Chairman John F. Miller, of the Red Cross blood service, Northern branch, reported 19 of the 104 pints were given by pledged donors of the Levengood Dairies.

The bloodmobile was on hand at the Armory from 12:30 to 6 p. m.

Only 11 persons were rejected one of the lowest rejection figures in many months.

There was a lull in blood-taking from 1:30 to 2:15.

The next visit of the bloodmobie will be on Jan. 6. The site of the visit will be announced later.

One Killed, Five Hurt In School Explosion

HEPHZIBAH, Ga., Nov. 19 (AP)—An explosion ripped a school gymnasium here today, killing a First grade pupil and injuring five.

Six-year-old Gilda Martin was playing outside the Haphzibah school when the explosion occurred. She was crushed under a collapsing wall and died a few minutes after reaching University hospital in nearby Augusta.

A little playmate, Sandra Lane, also six, had her leg broken.

Two teen-agers, Eugene Cadle and Clarence Inglett, both 15, were burned seriously. Twelve-year-old Cecil Smith and Vernon Blackwell, 11, were burned less severely.

Medallion Presented To Optimist Club

District 2 Governor R. A. Harp last night spoke to Pottstown Optimists on the organization's youth projects.

He presented Optimist pins and brochures to new members, Carl Young and Robert Ritchie, and gave a medallion to the club for sponsoring Royersford Optimists.

The emblem will be placed on the club banner.

Elwood R. Angstadt received a citation for his part in forming the new club.

Harp pointed out the international organization has over 600,000 Junior Optimists and that the local clubs and the international spent nearly $3,000,000 during the past year to sponsor youth clubs.

LAST NIGHT'S session was held in the Clover Leaf restaurant with seven members of the new Royersford club in attendance.

Family Christmas night will be sponsored by Optimists the night of Dec. 3 in the North Coventry elementary school.

The club board of governors will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in the home of Leroy Keyser.

Thirty-nine Pottstown and Royersford Optimists were present.

Next week's scheduled meeting was postponed because of Thanksgiving.

EX-AMBASSADOR DIES

received these letters from Santa, signed by him, and postmarked from Alaska.

However, although there are many things he can overcome that just plain humans can't, Santa Claus still keeps running into red tape with the Postoffice department.

So remember to put a six-cent air mail stamp on the letter.

Here's what you do to have your child receive a Santa letter.

1. Write the child the kind of letter you think Santa would write. Sign it "Santa Claus."

2. Write the child's name and address on the envelope.

3. Put a six-cent air mail stamp on that envelope.

4 Bring the letter to The Mercury office, King and Hanover streets, or the Pottstown Automobile club, 135 High street.

Or, you can put the stamped envelope INSIDE another envelope and mail it to The Mercury, if that's more convenient.

The deadline is Dec. 12. On that day, all letters will be picked up and taken to Pan American World Airways office in Philadelphia. Hughes will take the letters down there.

Pan American will fly the letters to Fairbanks, Alaska, where they'll be postmarked and mailed.

Car Driver Killed In Mexican Race

OAXACA, Mexico, Nov. 19 (AP)—An Italian driver was killed and a speeding American car smashed into a line of spectators, killing at least six persons, as the fourth Pan-American road race got away to a tragic start today.

Giuseppe Escosutti, a co-driver with Anthony Stagnoli in a 4500 CC Ferrari, died when the Ferrari ran off the road and overturned near Tehuantepec. Reports to the Mexican defense ministry from road patrols at the scene did not mention any injuries to Stagnoli.

The Tehuantepec radio reported a Ford driven by Robert F. Christie of Grant's Pass, Ore., overturned while speeding around a curve near Tehuantepec. The report said that the spectators, mostly country people lined up along the road to watch the racing cars roar by, rushed to aid Christie and his co-driver, who were not hurt.

Another Ford, piloted by Mickey Thompson of El Monte, Calif., rounded a turn and mowed down the spectators. Thompson's car also turned over but he and his co-pilot were only slightly bruised.

It was the worst accident in the history of this 1912-mile marathon from Southern Mexico to the Texas border. A total of four—all drivers—have been killed in the previous three years.

Eileen Moyer Marks Her Sixth Birthday

TRAPPE—Mrs. Donald Yerkes, Corr., Phone Schwenksville 4972. George Clarke Jr. and John E. Hartman Jr., Del., Phone Collegeville 7576.

Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moyer, celebrated her sixth birthday on Nov. 7. A party recently was held in her honor with the following friends as her guests: Phyllis and Joan Guest, Mary Ellen and Virginia Hess, Sherry Lacy, Susan Zollers, Karen and Elliott Moyer, all of Trappe, and Doris Bachman, of Boyertown. Edna Yeagle assisted Mrs. Moyer in the entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Friday spent a weekend recently in Camp Pickett, Va., with their son, Lyman, who is stationed there.

Mrs. Hubert Plush, who will celebrate her birthday tomorrow and Mrs. Ike Schlichter, of Limerick, who celebrated hers on Nev. 13, enjoyed dinner and an evening with friends in Norristown to mark their anniversaries.

Fellowship Conducts 'Hard Luck' Party

The Youth Fellowship of Trinity E and R church held a "Hard Luck" party Friday the 13th at the church. Appropriate games for the occasion were played by the following young people: Sarah Creager, June Coburn, Mary and Janice Whitehead, Carole Filipak, Harriet Weist, Caroline, Tucker, Bill Whitehead, Bill Weist, Dan and Gene Allen, John Wilcox, Edgar Nace, Bill Remig, Perry Cook and Franck Johannesen.

Pvt. Gerald F. Snovel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snovel, has been transferred to Puerto Rico. Gerald received his basic training at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

William Edwards' Hold Dinner to Note 20th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Edwards, of Park avenue, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary with a family dinner recently.

Weekend callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Gessner on Chestnut street, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brosious and daughters, Mrs. Joseph Fenstermacher, Ralph and William Brosious, all of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brosious, of Ardmore.

Horace E. Godshall, Joel Francis and Dr. R. Clamer Miller spent a weekend at Greentown in the Poconos hunting for grouse. Hampered by the fog, the party reports "poor hunting."

Fred Godshall spent a weekend in Huntington as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Parker. While there, he attended the Juniata-Ursinus football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Grove, of Belfonte, have returned home after a week's visit here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oran L. Grove.

Commissioners Order Recount of Ballots

BUTLER, Nov. 19 (AP) — Butler county commissioners have ordered a ballot recount Monday in 9 of 17 precincts in Butler, providing no appeal is filed before tomorrow.

The officials made the decision last night on the basis of apparent discrepancies. There is no indication of fraud, the commissioners said.

Civil Defense Teams To Hold Maneuvers

Pottstown Municipal airport at Stowe will be the center of a major two-county civil air defense maneuver this Sunday.

Taking part will be Montgomery and Chester county civil defense councils; Valley Forge Group 90 Civil Air Patrol; and a first aid team from Pottstown's branch of the Red Cross.

From the Stowe airport headquarters, a bi-county simulated bomb-damage search, evacuation and supply problem study, will be conducted.

The event is part of a Statewide joint Civil Air Patrol and civil defense project.

The Pottstown CAP squadron is in charge of Col. Sidney Pollock. More than 50 men from Pottstown are expected to take part.

Second Prize Won By GOP Women

Perkiomen Council of Republican Women won second prize in scrapbook competition at the recent 31st annual convention of Republican women in Harrisburg, it was announced yesterday. Six council members attended the convention.

The prize was presented to Mrs. Frank Surma, chairman of the publicity committee, who served on the State credentials committee.

Delegates from the council were Mrs. William Xander, Pennsburg, and Mrs. Thomas Thornton, Gerysville. Other members who attended were Mrs. Arthur G. Sloan and Mrs. David Wood, Red Hill, and Mrs. Warren Hover and Mrs. Surma, Pennsburg RD.

Group Considers Routes For Turnpike Extension

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—Two routes along the Allegheny river for an Erie extension to the Pennsylvania turnpike are being considered by the Turnpike commission.

Commissioner David Watson disclosed today that the routes were proposed by a delegation of civic leaders from the area headed by Sen. Albert Pechan (R-Armstrong).

He said the delegation suggested the extension go through Armstrong county and the Oil City-Franklin industrial area.

Governor Fine Leaves On Flight to Israel

Fine said the reforestation project was made possible by the $100-a-plate dinner in Philadelphia.

The proceeds of the dinner will permit the planting of 40,000 trees in the project in Israel, Fine said. Accompanying the governor were Harry S. Sylk, Philadelphia, and Charles Weissman, Wilkes-Barre.

OBITUARIES

FRANK C. EDINGER, 82, husband of the late Lillie B. (Endy) Edinger, died late yesterday afternoon at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Heydt, 635 SOUTH READING AVENUE, BOYERTOWN, where he resided for the past 34 years.

A native of Earl township, he was a son of the late Elias and Maria (Clouser) Edinger and was last employed as a saw operator at the Boyertown Burial Casket company.

He was a life member of the Friendship Hook and Ladder company, Boyertown.

Surviving are these children: Minnie, wife of Daniel G. Burkert, 116 College street, Boyertown; Harry, Grosstown road, Stowe; Mrs. Lulu Baus, 138 North Reading avenue, Boyertown; Leon, 34 South Franklin street, Boyertown; Daisy, wife of John J. Emes, 32 South Washington street, Boyertown; Titus, 30 South Washington street, Boyertown; Marie, wife of William N. Fegley, Boyertown RD 2; Elsie, wife of Paul G. Heydt, at whose home he died; 38 grandchildren, and 20 great-grandchildren. He was the last of his family.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m., from the Schwenk funeral home, 124 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown. The Rev. Dr. David F. Longacre, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Boyertown, will officiate.

Interment wil be made in Hill Church cemetery.

WILLIAM B. STRAEHLE, 57, POTTSTOWN STAR ROUTE, husband of Edith A. (Rex) Strachle, died yesterday at 12:20 a. m. in Memorial hospital where he had been a patient for the past four weeks.

He had been in ailing health for the past two years. He lived at his Star Route address for the past seven years and had been a former resident of Parkerford and Royersford.

A member of St. Matthew's Lutheran church near Ludwig's Corners, he was born in Spring City, son of the late Frederick and Mary Ann (Bickhart) Straehle.

A machinist, he learned his trade with the Royersford Foundry and Machine company, and was last employed with Loomcraft Frocks incorporated.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mary, wife of John Stutconis, Pottstown Star route, and Kathryn, wife of Augustus L. Marinello, Norristown; four grandchildren; and two sisters, Mary, wife of Clarence Williams, 161 Walnut street, Spring City, and Margaret, wife of Clyde Halteman, Mount Holly, N. J.

ANNA BLANCHE (WALTMAN) BOSSERT, 72, DOUGLASSVILLE RD 1, wife of Albin G. Bossert, died late Wednesday night in Pottstown hospital.

She had been ill since the past Sunday night.

Born in Quarryville, Lancaster county, she was the daughter of the late Soloman and Mary Rebecca (Clendenin) Waltman.

Children Honor Area Couple on Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Manns, of Seitz road, near Graterford, were honored by their children with a 50th wedding anniversary celebration at the St. James Parish house in Evansburg.

Fifty-one members of the family were present at a dinner which preceeded a reception and open-house attended by over 100 friends from Whitmarsh, Germantown, Bucks county, Delaware and the surrounding communities. An anniversary cake was presented to the couple and the flowers decorating the table were the gift of their grandchildren.

Among the many gifts which they received were a gold wrist watch for Mrs. Manns and a gold pocket watch for Mr. Manns, the gifts of their 11 children, all of whom were present with the exception of one daughter living in California.

The Manns were married in Manitoba, Canada on Nov. 18, 1903 in a double ceremony with Mrs. Mann's younger sister and her husband. This past Summer the Manns returned to Canada where they celebrated this anniversary with the members of the wedding party all of whom are still living.

In 1927 the Manns came to the United States with their family and became naturalized citizens. They lived in Whitmarsh until 1937 when they moved to Graterford where Mr. Manns is a farmer.

PTA WILL AID LIONS CLUB IN CHRISTMAS FETE

Teaching Problems Discussed at Meeting

Spring City Parent-Teacher association will assist Spring City Lions club in its annual Christmas party in the High school. Christmas trees also will be purchased for the class rooms of the grade school.

These decisions were reached by the executive board following the recent monthly meeting of the PTA. The board also voted to assist Harry Gorton, elementary school principal, with the school safety patrol whenever he feels the need of assistance.

Dr. Mark Evans, head of the demonstration school at West Chester State Teachers college, spoke at the regular PTA meeting, attended by some 100 persons. He urged parents to try to understand their children and try and bring themselves to the child's level.

Dr. Evans was asked why the "ABC's" are not taught. He told the group "it is easier to learn the whole work concept rather than its parts. Later in the school year the parts are taught and in subsequent grades the prefixes, suffixes, endings and word blending techniques are taught."

Pupils of Mrs. Kenneth Rothermel's Fifth grade presented a patriotic program, in which they gave their own version of the pledge of allegiance. They also sang an original song, "My Flag, My Flag," the words of which were composed by Kurt Findeisen and the music by several pupils, under direction of Mrs. Betty Hedrick, music supervisor.

Mrs. Neal McClellan, president, conducted the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Kline, Mrs. Harris Bickhart and Mrs. Betty Hunter.

Library to Get Aid From Members Of Woman's Club

Mrs. David E. Finkbiner, president of Royersford Free Public library board of trustees, has announced a list of helpers, picked from membership of the Woman's club, to assist in the public library.

Included are Elizabeth Weinert, at the charging desk, and Mrs. Warren Francis, stacks. Each of these women has volunteered to help one session a week during afternoon library hours, as long as circumstances require.

People who will be on call for general work from time to time are Mrs. Joseph Buckwalter, Mrs. Henry Graber, Mrs. Carl Merz and Mrs. Finkbiner.

Other individuals or members of other organizations interested in the library have been asked to call Mrs. Finkbiner or Katherine Hawkins, the librarian, at the library.

It was explained that this is being done to help get the new books on the shelves from time to time as quickly as possible.

Royersford Girl Scouts Hold Election of Officers

They are Vivian Rudick, president; Rina Cinciripino, vice president; Anne Sharpe, scribe; Judy DePolo, assistant scribe; Jeri Hesh, treasurer, and Sandra Adams, assistant treasurer.

The meeting opened with the pledge of allegiance. Linda Thompson led the group in the Girl Scout promise and laws. The meeting closed with the Friendly circle and a song, "Day is Done."

President Receives Film on Gettysburg

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Sen. John M. Butler (R-Md) today gave President Eisenhower a film entitled "Mr. Lincoln goes to Gettysburg."

The film was made in connection with the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Western Maryland railroad, the route President Lincoln took on his way to the Gettysburg battlefield for his famous address.

Butler said he discussed a number of matters with the President, but preferred not to talk about them.

Women's Labor Director Named by President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, secretary of State for Connecticut, was appointed by President Eisenhower today to be director of the Women's Bureau of the department of Labor.

She is a Republican. Her recess appointment is subject to Senate confirmation in the session starting in January.

Mrs. Leopold would succeed Mrs. Frieda S. Miller, who the White House said has resigned.

Commission Orders Construction of Reservoir

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Public Utility commission today ordered the Tremont Water and Gas company to start construction of a new five million gallon water reservoir, pump station and connecting line.

The commission said the utility, serving some 400 consumers in the Tremont, Schuylkill county, area must start construction by next May 1.

The improvements will cost an estimated $15,000.

JP Leaves Estate Valued at $1500

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 19 — An estate exceeding $1500 in value was left by William H. Wagner, 84, long-time justice of the peace of New Hanover township, who died Nov. 9.

He bequeathed his homestead to a daughter, A. Mildred Wagner, and provided that she and another daughter, Aurilla Smith, should receive various antiques and personal items.

The balance of the estate is to go two-fifths each to the daughters and one-fifth in trust for a grandson, William Leon Yergey, with the residue after his death being shared by Bethany Orphans' home of Womelsdorf and Faulkner Swamp Reformed church.

Carl F. W. Gentner, 51, Mainland, who died Oct. 24, named his wife, Jean V. Gentner, beneficiary of his $1000 estate.

PTA WILL AID LIONS CLUB IN CHRISTMAS FETE

Teaching Problems Discussed at Meeting

Spring City Parent-Teacher association will assist Spring City Lions club in its annual Christmas party in the High school. Christmas trees also will be purchased for the class rooms of the grade school.

These decisions were reached by the executive board following the recent monthly meeting of the PTA. The board also voted to assist Harry Gorton, elementary school principal, with the school safety patrol whenever he feels the need of assistance.

Dr. Mark Evans, head of the demonstration school at West Chester State Teachers college, spoke at the regular PTA meeting, attended by some 100 persons. He urged parents to try to understand their children and try and bring themselves to the child's level.

Dr. Evans was asked why the "ABC's" are not taught. He told the group "it is easier to learn the whole work concept rather than its parts. Later in the school year the parts are taught and in subsequent grades the prefixes, suffixes, endings and word blending techniques are taught."

Pupils of Mrs. Kenneth Rothermel's Fifth grade presented a patriotic program, in which they gave their own version of the pledge of allegiance. They also sang an original song, "My Flag, My Flag," the words of which were composed by Kurt Findeisen and the music by several pupils, under direction of Mrs. Betty Hedrick, music supervisor.

Mrs. Neal McClellan, president, conducted the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Kline, Mrs. Harris Bickhart and Mrs. Betty Hunter.

Television Will Carry 'Oscar' Awards Program

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19 (AP)—The 26th annual movie academy "Oscar" awards next March will be carried coast to coast by NBC and television stations for the second successive year.

The academy and the network have made the announcement. Concerning a trade-paper report that the telecast would be in color—which registers a black and white picture on non-color sets—an NBC spokesman said: "No comment."

Library to Get Aid From Members Of Woman's Club

Mrs. David E. Finkbiner, president of Royersford Free Public library board of trustees, has announced a list of helpers, picked from membership of the Woman's club, to assist in the public library.

Included are Elizabeth Weinert, at the charging desk, and Mrs. Warren Francis, stacks. Each of these women has volunteered to help one session a week during afternoon library hours, as long as circumstances require.

People who will be on call for general work from time to time are Mrs. Joseph Buckwalter, Mrs. Henry Graber, Mrs. Carl Merz and Mrs. Finkbiner.

Other individuals or members of other organizations interested in the library have been asked to call Mrs. Finkbiner or Katherine Hawkins, the librarian, at the library.

It was explained that this is being done to help get the new books on the shelves from time to time as quickly as possible.

Royersford Girl Scouts Hold Election of Officers

They are Vivian Rudick, president; Rina Cinciripino, vice president; Anne Sharpe, scribe; Judy DePolo, assistant scribe; Jeri Hesh, treasurer, and Sandra Adams, assistant treasurer.

The meeting opened with the pledge of allegiance. Linda Thompson led the group in the Girl Scout promise and laws. The meeting closed with the Friendly circle and a song, "Day is Done."

President Receives Film on Gettysburg

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Sen. John M. Butler (R-Md) today gave President Eisenhower a film entitled "Mr. Lincoln goes to Gettysburg."

The film was made in connection with the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Western Maryland railroad, the route President Lincoln took on his way to the Gettysburg battlefield for his famous address.

Butler said he discussed a number of matters with the President, but preferred not to talk about them.

Women's Labor Director Named by President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, secretary of State for Connecticut, was appointed by President Eisenhower today to be director of the Women's Bureau of the department of Labor.

She is a Republican. Her recess appointment is subject to Senate confirmation in the session starting in January.

Mrs. Leopold would succeed Mrs. Frieda S. Miller, who the White House said has resigned.

LOST DEATH GAME—Police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Elizabeth Valone (top), 12, of Chicago, who was fatally wounded while playing "Russian roulette" with Kenneth Fields (bottom).

Witnesses allegedly said a gun which contained three cartridges had been passed twice between the pair, each spinning the cylinder, placing the weapon to his head and pulling the trigger.

In 1952 more than four million dairy cows were bred artificially in the United States.

Commission Orders Construction of Reservoir

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Public Utility commission today ordered the Tremont Water and Gas company to start construction of a new five million gallon water reservoir, pump station and connecting line.

The commission said the utility, serving some 400 consumers in the Tremont, Schuylkill county, area must start construction by next May 1.

The improvements will cost an estimated $15,000.

JP Leaves Estate Valued at $1500

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 19 — An estate exceeding $1500 in value was left by William H. Wagner, 84, long-time justice of the peace of New Hanover township, who died Nov. 9.

He bequeathed his homestead to a daughter, A. Mildred Wagner, and provided that she and another daughter, Aurilla Smith, should receive various antiques and personal items.

The balance of the estate is to go two-fifths each to the daughters and one-fifth in trust for a grandson, William Leon Yergey, with the residue after his death being shared by Bethany Orphans' home of Womelsdorf and Faulkner Swamp Reformed church.

Carl F. W. Gentner, 51, Mainland, who died Oct. 24, named his wife, Jean V. Gentner, beneficiary of his $1000 estate.

Another in the series of beautiful homes that make Pottstown warm

—Mercury Staff Photo

The landscaping improvements made by Mr. and Mrs. William Raduta at this home of theirs at 958 Terrace lane show up to good advantage in the now-vanished snow. Mr. and Mrs. Raduta added both the low wire fence out front and the wooden ranch-type fence out back during the past Summer.

They've also added shrubbery since the house was built three years ago by Allen K. Davidheiser Jr., Potstown contractor.

Downstairs are the living room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath. Upstairs are two unfinished rooms. Raduta is a curer for Firestone Tire and Rubber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ramm entertained relatives from Virginia for two days.

Mrs. Louis Kruckeberg, of Black Rock road, will be among the guests Sunday at a birthday celebration honoring her son, Clair Keplinger, at his home in Norristown.

Thirty-seven persons from the community enjoyed the bus trip to New York City sponsored by the Women's guild of St. Lukes E. and R. church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Minnick will celebrate their 22d wedding anniversary tomorrow.

Mrs. W. Donovan Moore and Gladys Drummond are spending a week or 10 days in Greensboro, N. C., where they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, and in Greenville, S. C., where they will be visiting Mrs. Mary Glen and family.

NO. 100,000 SAILS — Mrs. Margaret Rhodes, 23, of Flint, Mich., who has the distinction of being the 100,000th passenger to sail on the liner United States, poses for cameramen before the ship leaves New York for Europe.

She is on her way to join her husband, Harry D. Rhodes, a British subject, who is a law student at Cambridge University.

Pilots Group Hears Aviation Enthusiast

Fifty-five-year-old John Henry Leh, Allentown, an aviation enthusiast as long as he can remember, spoke to members of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots association of Pottstown last night on his six-week, round-the-world trip by air.

Flying via commercial airlines, he landled at 29 airports and spent parts of his tour on seven different airlines.

Leh, who pioneered the construction of the Allentown-Easton-Bethlehem airport, told 39 club members he spent 120 hours in the air in the recent tour.

There'll be 1200 tickets in the store's toy department that the youngsters can pick up for the asking, Jack Hoffman store manager, announced.

Santa will be at the store himself soon after the show and he'll be there in the toy department each day until Christmas.

Except for the time he'll take to visit the hospitals, that is.

Yes, Santa won't forget the children who can't come out to see him.

He'll visit both Memorial and Pottstown hospitals soon after he arrives in town, and he'll have gifts along for all the young patients.

From then on, he'll be sitting in his big chair in the New York store's toyland.

He'll listen with a keen ear to what his young visitors there have to say, and what most of them will say is pretty easy to guess.

They'll all have their Christmas wishes memorized when they climb up on his knee. They are likely to tell him all he wants to know.

And old Santa will find that his young friends have been as good as could be all year long.

About 120,00 horses were pulling street cars in the United States in 1884.

"FOR OUTSTANDING service to boyhood," four Boy Scout leaders were awarded the Order of Merit at the annual meeting of Continental district leaders in Collegeville last night. Shown receiving the award from Committeeman Bertram P. Scanlin is Paul W. Miller, scoutmaster of Stowe Troop 1.

About 270 Pottstown area Scout leaders attended the dinner meeting. It was held in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium, Ursinus college.

Five Men Honored For Scout Service At District Meeting

By NORMAN REED

Five Pottstown area men were honored for unselfish service to boyhood at a Boy Scout leaders' meeting in Collegeville last night.

The annual dinner meeting of the Continental Scout district, held in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium at Ursinus college, was attended by almost 270 Scout leaders and wives.

Four of the five men honored received the Order of Merit; the other received a training award.

Those receiving the Order of Merit were:

The training award went to Melvin C. Borneman, committeeman of Grace Lutheran Troop 15.

BERTRAM P. SCANLIN, member of the Order of Merit committee, made the awards on behalf of the Valley Forge Council.

The Order of Merit is "an expression of commendation and appreciation" from the Council for "outstanding service to boyhood."

It is presented for "unselfish service, high ideals, leadership and example in the interest of youth."

Scanlin explained that the award is given to only a few Scouters each year from the Continental district.

Miller received the award after serving for the past ten years as scoutmaster of his troop.

He was active in district activities, also—as in instructor of scoutmaster courses and in camp management.

Glenn was the leader of the Pottstown area troop that attended the National Jamboree in California the past Summer.

Bowers has been active as an organizer. He formed Limerick Cub Pack 230, and has conducted courses for troop committeemen.

Stender was largely responsible for organizing the Trappe troop.

The training award Borneman received was given for completing three years of leadership training.

Frank Beam, Philadelphia, brought greetings to the meeting from the Valley Forge council. Robert C. Yoder, chairman of the Continental district conducted the meeting.

Speakers included Richard D. Dutcher, district executive; and John H. Ware, Region III committeeman.

Frederic Caleen, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the committee's choices for district officers. All were approved by those attending.

Debra Renee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Detweiler and Joann, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Diehl, were baptized recently by the Rev. E. L. Angstadt in St. John's Lutheran church. The parents were the sponsors.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Angstadt and son, Lee, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fox, Argus.

The annual turkey supper sponsored by the Willing Workers society of St. Luke's Lutheran church, Obelisk, will be served on Saturday, from 2 to 9 p. m.

The next regular meeting of the Luther league of the Sumneytown Lutheran parish will be held on Sunday evening, November 29, at 7 p. m. A film strip will be shown and George Metka will have charge of devotions.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Grubb visited his brother, Max, who is a surgical patient in the University of Pennsylvania hospital.

Mr. Lester Hersh, Sarah Snyder, Maude Hersh, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Detweiler, spent a day in Philadelphia.

Earl Walker is confined to his bed suffering from pneumonia.

A hat social will be the attraction at the regular monthly meeting of the Boulder Valley Ladies auxiliary on Sunday.

Mrs. Willard Weldner has returned from Grand View hospital, Sellersville, where she was a surgical patient.

Dr., Mrs. Fry Return From Western Tour

COLLEGEVILLE—Mrs. Donald Yerkes, Corr., Phone Schwenksville 4972 Kenneth Wanner, Del., Phone Collegeville 3042.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Fry returned home recently from a seven-weeks' motor tour of the West. While in Oklahoma, they visited Mr. and Mrs. James Cearley and their 3-month-old daughter, Twila Jean, in Lawton. Mrs. Cearley is the former Valerie Kuhne. The Frys also spent a week at a guest ranch in Arizona.

Mrs. Maurice O. Bone returned home recently from Montgomery hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Choate 2d spent a day in Philadelphia, where Choate spoke to a group of German Trade Union representatives who are in this country studying farmer-intermediary government relationships. A few weeks ago, a group from Italy visited the Choate farm on Hopwood road, and in the near future a representative group from France is expected.

Kidnapers Sentenced to Death; Warden Reports Crowds Clamor for Tickets to View Gas Chamber Executions

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Bobby Greenlease's kidnap killers reaped the reward of their shocking crime today—they must die in the gas chamber Dec. 18, a week before Christmas.

"It's too good for them but it's the best the law provides," said grim jawed Robert C. Greenlease Sr., multi-millionaire father of the slain boy.

Within minutes after a Federal District court jury recommended the supreme penalty, Judge Albert L. Reeves sentenced Carl Austin Hall, 34, and Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, to death in the gas chamber at the Missouri penitentiary in Jefferson City.

They will die in the little gray stone death house in just one month—two and a half months from Sept. 28, the day they lured little Bobby to a horrible death in a Kansas wheat field.

Neither Hall, the playboy who squandered a fortune then turned to crime, nor his alcoholic mistress showed any emotion at the sentence. Asked by Judge Reeves if they had any comment, Hall said "No, sir." Mrs. Heady shook her head.

The mother of the fair haired little victim broke down and cried when the St. Louis Post-Dispatch reached her at her home here.

"My feeling about capital punishment makes no difference," she said. "There isn't any form of death that can begin to compare with the suffering my husband and I have endured since Bobby was taken, much less what Bobby endured."

BOTH ARE reported to have said they are ready to die for the crime that shocked the world. Both have been pictured by their attorneys as full of remorse.

When the jury came in with its decision, about 70 minutes after taking the case, Mrs. Heady nodded as if she expected the verdict. A thin smile crossed her lips. Hall glanced up once, then looked down again — hiding his emotions as he had throughout the three-day trial.

Roy K. Dietrich, court appointed attorney for Hall, and Harold Hull, Mrs. Heady's lawyer, said they had not decided whether they would appeal the verdict. The jury's sole job was to decide whether the couple should die. Both had pleaded guilty and admitted all the facts of the sordid crime they committed for easy money—a record $600,000 ransom.

The foreman of the 12-man jury of Western Missouri farmers and businessmen was Elmer Gruenther, Versailles banker and father of seven children from ten to 32 years old.

He called it "a rough case" but said the jurors had agreed to make no comment.

THE PUBLIC already has started clamoring for a chance to see the execution. Warden Ralph Edison of the Missouri penitentiary said he already had a waiting list of applicants for tickets.

Edison will trip the lever releasing cyanide pellets which form the deadly execution gas. Mrs. Heady will be the first woman ever executed in the gas chamber. Thirty men have died there.

AWAIT DEATH—Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady are shown being taken to the Jackson county jail to await death after Judge Reeves had measured out the death sentence.

One problem, Edison said, is what Mrs. Heady will wear. Men are stripped to their shorts before entering the chamber to lessen the amount of gas that might cling to their clothing.

On the climatic day of their trial, the kidnap killers were brought to the court through a drizzling rain. It was one of the few days since the kidnaping the sun had not shone.

Judge Reeves measured out the death sentence in these words:

"In view of the recommendation of this jury, and since the defendants have nothing to say as to why the sentence should not now be pronounced, let it be the judgment of this court that upon you, Carl Austin Hall, the sentence of death be imposed, and that the marshal transport you to Jefferson City and there in the Missouri State penitentiary by the administration of lethal gas, the death penalty there be executed."

The crowd faded away. Again in handcuffs and chains, Hall and Mrs. Heady were taken back to the Jackson county jail to await death.

Mossadegh Voices New Suicide Threat

TEHRAN, Iran, Nov. 19 (AP)—Ex-Premier Mohammed Mossadegh voiced a new suicide threat at his treason trial today, vowing he will fast unto death.

In a court martial session at which prosecutor Brig. Hossein Azemodeh asked that Mossadegh be hanged, the ailing former dictator charged the Army plots to kill him in prison and said he will foil that by a hunger strike.

"By God, I will eat no food until I die," Mossadegh shouted. "Then the people will know what Shemr (the assassin of the Moslem prophet Hosseind has been appointed to kill me."

Angrily he pointed to Azemodeh.

The prosecutor had threatened to put Mossadegh in solitary confinement if he continued to complain about his food, living conditions and alleged attempts to do him in.

Mossadegh told the court president, Gen. Nasrollah Moghbeli, that his life was in danger, that he had been threatened "for the last two nights" and that "the Army will kill me in the prison itself."

"I'll be killed in prison," he shouted. "It will be no use in your acting after I am dead. You let the prosecutor call me an infidel. On that ground alone, my life is in danger."

Moghbeli replied "the Army will protect you."

Premier of Cambodia Resigns After Two Days

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia, Nov. 19 (AP)—Chan Nak resigned as premier of Cambodia today after being in office only two days.

He was private councillor to King Norodom Sihanouk before being appointed premier to replace Pen Nouth, who achieved great personel popularity during the King's recent voluntary exile.

Well informed sources said the new premier's resignation grew out of a dispute as to when elections should be held. Forces allied with the King are for elections as soon as possible. Other groups would put off voting. The stand Chan Nak favored was not announced.

Vishinsky Declares US Prepares For War to Stall Off Depression

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Andri Y. Vishinsky took a swipe at the Bermuda conference of the Western Big Three today and charged the United States is trying to stall off a depression with preparations for a new war.

Vishinsky showed a lack of his old-time pep in assailing United States policies in a long speech to the UN Assembly's political committee. American Delegate James J. Wadsworth replied he had heard nothing to give Americans hope for a relaxation of tension.

The Soviet deputy foreign minister made his big pitch for this Assembly in trotting out Moscow's latest version of its peace plan, most of which has been put up and knocked down several times before the UN.

Wadsworth told the committee the delegates had heard the same well-worn proposals which have been rejected before. He said it is significant there was no sign of any intention to avert war and reduce tensions.

Tension was the theme of Vishinsky's talk.

VISHINSKY SNAPPED that statements of the Western Powers to the effect that reduction of tension depends on the Soviet Union are "fallacious." He reminded the delegates that the Soviet Union had proposed a meeting of the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and the Red Chinese to talk over relaxation of tensions.

"This important proposal for the convening of a five-power conference has been met with the convening of the Burmuda conference," he said. "This conference, as a result of its separate character and the specific goals placed before it, far from contributing to a reduction of international tension, can only serve to intensify such tension."

Vishinsky said things are pretty bad all around in the capitalistic countries, with unemployment and such ills, but several delegates, weary from listening to him for one hour and 48 minutes, commented that his speech was perhaps his weakest effort.

Western delegates said Vishinsky hashed over numerous old subjects and they saw no reason to draw up important policy statements to counter his speech. Contrary to the usual close attention with which Vishinsky has been heard in the past, some delegates drifted in and out of the room or read magazines.

Much of the Soviet delegate's speech attacked the UN plan for atomic control, which was based mainly on proposals submitted by Bernard M. Baruch, of the United States, in 1946. That plan still is backed by most of the UN delegates.

Police Acknowledge Lodge Is Guarded

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The New York Daily News says the round-the-clock armed guard assigned ten day ago to Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., ambassador to the United Nations, was to guard him against possible attack from fanatical Puerto Rican Nationalists.

The News also said other American officials have been placed under similar protection, but did not name them.

It was two Puerto Ricans who staged the abortive assanation attempt on President Truman at Blair House in Washington three years ago.

The News said New York police were assigned to guard Lodge and his wife at the request of the State department because of reported Nationalists' threats.

New York police officials have acknowledged that a guard has been assigned to Lodge, but no reason ever was divulged.

Group Wants to Question Former Soviet Code Expert

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—The State department relayed to the Canadian Government today a second request that senators investigating the Harry Dexter White case be allowed to question a former code clerk of the Russian embassy in Ottawa.

And the Senate Internal Security subcommittee showed every indication of pushing ahead with its inquiry into Communists in government in the face of President Eisenhower's expressed hope the issue will be dead by the time of next year's election.

How long the investigation may go on is uncertain. But Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) said the subcommittee is concerned with the government's internal security and "our objective is to go right ahead with the kind of work we have been doing."

Canada rejected one request earlier this month that the subcommittee be allowed to question the one-time Soviet code expert, Igor Gouzenko, who split with the Reds after World War II and disclosed details of a Russian atomic spy ring in Canada that reached into the United States. The Dominion Government said Gouzenko had revealed all the information in his possession.

Senate investigators aren't convinced of that, and would like to go to Canada to see whether Gouzenko can give them any new leads or additional details of cases they already have investigated.

No More Moving for Boy, Woman Says After Bludgeoning Husband to Death

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Life was one continual moving day for 10-year-old Bobby Renner, a sturdy little lad with blonde hair and handsome features. He never had much—no real home, no playmates.

Early today, a harsh fate which he never invited cost him his father, separated him from his mother and came within a hair's breadth of taking the little boy's last precious possession—life itself.

His tall, graying blond mother, Dorothy, 43, beat her sleeping husband to death, police said, to end the family's rootless wanderings from coast to coast.

"No more moving," sighed the dry-eyed woman as she was taken away by arresting officers. "My boy had no chance for a real home where he could put down roots and make friends."

POLICE SAID Mrs. Renner tried to gas herself and her son, but the boy escaped her clutches and ran screaming into the night to plead with a neighbor:

"Help me. Please help me. There's trouble in my house. My mother turned on the gas."

The head of the family, Richard Renner, 43, a jobless real estate salesman was beaten to death in his sleep with a small sledge hammer and a night table.

Mrs. Renner said the family had been constantly on the move during her 15 years of marriage—although she offered no explanation for the frequent changes of address. The Renners came here from San Fernando, Calif., a month ago, and already had moved twice in New York.

They were not even unpacked in their latest address in Hollis, Queens, Mrs. Renner recounted, when the husband came home last night and announced:

"We've got to move again. We're going out to Oregon."

A quarrel followed, ending only when Renner went to sleep.

Police quoted Mrs. Renner as telling them:

"After my husband went to sleep, I went to the tool chest and got the hammer. The only way to stop him from moving was to kill him. I killed my husband. It's all over now. No more moving . . . no more."

After Renner was beaten with the sledge hammer, police said Mrs. Renner dragged her drowsy little son from bed, took him in the kitchen, closed the windows and turned on the gas.

Moans from her dying husband drew her back to the bedroom, officers said, where she bludgeoned him anew with a night table.

The boy cried himself to sleep in a police station after his mother's arrest. Later, he was taken to a children's shelter.

Every Boy Needs a Man's Helping Hand.

Would You Pay $1 To Feel 10 Years Younger?

Every person who needs it can have, for ONLY $1.00, a full $3.00 Course of the Remarkable New Mineral and Vitamin Tonic, known as SYS-TONE.

You will receive THREE $1.00 Bottles—not samples—for Only One Dollar at the Bentz Drug Store. (Also sent by mail; see coupon below.) We make this offer because we believe people who once try Sys-Tone will continue to use it—whenever needed! This offer is good Today and Tomorrow ONLY.

WHAT IT IS

Sys-Tone is a New, Liquid Formula of Nature's Minerals, Herbs and Vitamins. It is taken before meals, so it works with your food, and enables you to digest your food faster and better.

STOMACH GAS

SYS-TONE will bring out gaseous impurity (frequently from the first dose) which may have been the real cause all along of your gassy, upset stomach, acid sourness and stomach distress.

SYS-TONE will relieve indigestion, difficult breathing due to gassy stomach, dyspepsia and pain in chest due to stomach gas.

UPSET NERVES

SYS-TONE relieves one of the Main Causes of Nervousness; that is, lack of Vitamin B-1. When your system is low in Vitamin B-1 your nerves may suffer real disaster, with sleepless nights, wretched feeling in the mornings, over-worry and getting excited easily. Sys-Tone contains plenty of Vitamin B-1 to rebuild weak, upset nerves so that you can enjoy night after night of sound, refreshing sleep.

BLOOD POVERTY

SYS-TONE acts as a hematinic: that is, it helps to counteract Blood Poverty! It will build Red Blood Cells and produce Red Coloring Matter in your blood. It will increase both the NUMBER and the COLOR of your Red Blood Cells. It will overcome sallowness ("Muddy" complexion) that is due to pale, thin blood, and will give you greater energy for a full day's work.

Many people say they feel and look Ten — even Twenty! — Years Younger in the way of improved feeling of health after a course of Sys-Tone.

Now, whether Sys-Tone will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will produce results for you in a few days or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try this Full $3.00 Course (3 bottles) for only $1.00.

There are no strings attached to this offer. The coupon below is worth $2.00 TODAY and TOMORROW! So act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself and your family.

N. J. SCHWARTZ, Ph.R., Ph.C., Noted Compounder and originator of SYS-TONE, who authorizes the Bentz Drug Store, Pottstown, to offer a $3.00 course of this amazing new medicine, purely on an Introductory Basis, at the sensational price of $1. (Out-of-town readers see mailing address below.)

44 YEARS IN POTTSTOWN

Would You Pay $1 To Feel 10 Years Younger?

Every person who needs it can have, for ONLY $1.00, a full $3.00 Course of the Remarkable New Mineral and Vitamin Tonic, known as SYS-TONE.

You will receive THREE $1.00 Bottles—not samples—for Only One Dollar at the Bentz Drug Store. (Also sent by mail; see coupon below.) We make this offer because we believe people who once try Sys-Tone will continue to use it—whenever needed! This offer is good Today and Tomorrow ONLY.

WHAT IT IS

Sys-Tone is a New, Liquid Formula of Nature's Minerals, Herbs and Vitamins. It is taken before meals, so it works with your food, and enables you to digest your food faster and better.

STOMACH GAS

SYS-TONE will bring out gaseous impurity (frequently from the first dose) which may have been the real cause all along of your gassy, upset stomach, acid sourness and stomach distress.

SYS-TONE will relieve indigestion, difficult breathing due to gassy stomach, dyspepsia and pain in chest due to stomach gas.

UPSET NERVES

SYS-TONE relieves one of the Main Causes of Nervousness; that is, lack of Vitamin B-1. When your system is low in Vitamin B-1 your nerves may suffer real disaster, with sleepless nights, wretched feeling in the mornings, over-worry and getting excited easily. Sys-Tone contains plenty of Vitamin B-1 to rebuild weak, upset nerves so that you can enjoy night after night of sound, refreshing sleep.

BLOOD POVERTY

SYS-TONE acts as a hematinic; that is, it helps to counteract Blood Poverty! It will build Red Blood Cells and produce Red Coloring Matter in your blood. It will increase both the NUMBER and the COLOR of your Red Blood Cells. It will overcome sallowness ("Muddy" complexion) that is due to pale, thin blood, and will give you greater energy for a full day's work.

Many people say they feel and look Ten — even Twenty! — Years Younger in the way of improved feeling of health after a course of Sys-Tone.

Now, whether Sys-Tone will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will produce results for you in a few days or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try this Full $3.00 Course (3 bottles) for only $1.00.

There are no strings attached to this offer. The coupon below is worth $2.00 TODAY and TOMORROW! So act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself and your family.

Out-of-town readers may send $1 with coupon to Bentz Drug Store, High & Hanover Sts., Pottstown, Pa., and the full $3.00 course will be shipped Prepaid.

N. J. SCHWARTZ, Ph.R., Ph.C., Noted Compounder and originator of SYS-TONE, who authorizes the Bentz Drug Store, Pottstown, to offer a $3.00 course of this amazing new medicine, purely on an Introductory Basis, at the sensational price of $1. (Out-of-town readers see mailing address below.)

COUPON WORTH 2 DOLLARS

This coupon and only $1.00 good for THREE Full-Size Dollar Bottles of SYS-TONE Today and Tomorrow. (Out-of-town readers mail coupon as noted above.)

Paul S. Focht, 58, 305 North York street, well-known Pottstown grocery man, died suddenly at his home yesterday at 1:15 a. m.

He owned two grocery stores, one at Third and York streets and another at Beech and Charlotte streets.

He was vice president of the Schuylkill Valley Grocers association and secretary of Mayer's Bakery Inc.

PAUL S. FOCHT

Born in Pottstown, he lived all of his life here. He was the son of the late William M. and Mary B. (Seasholtz) Focht.

He was born in the home in which he died. His late father owned the grocery store at the York street address as far back as 70 years ago.

Focht took it over in 1933, nine years after the death of his father.

He also was a member of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots association.

HE LEAVES his wife, Edna (Mayer) Focht; one daughter, Anne Elizabeth, wife of John Fadler Jr., Shanesville, Berks county; three brothers, Ralph S., Wyomissing; Ira S., 994 Hale street, and Nevin S., Garden City, Long Island, N. Y., and one sister, Esther M., wife of Allan Peterson, 501 Highland road.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday from the Wilson Funeral home, 711 North Franklin street, at the convenience of the family.

Hillary Missimer, reader for the First Church of Christ Scientist, will officiate. Cremation will follow in Reading with interment of the ashes in Pottstown East End cemetery.

Thirty-two 25-year employes of the Spicer Manufacturing division will be presented gold wrist watches next Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Spicer Quarter-Century club in Pottstown Elks' home.

R. E. Carpenter, president of the Dana corporation, will make the presentations. The dinner meeting will begin with cocktails at 5:30 o'clock. All 25-year workers are eligible to join the Quarter Century club, which was organized in 1948. (For a complete list of full names, see story on Page 1).

ATOMIC EXCHANGE HINTED

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 19 (AP)—The chairman of the Atomic Energy commission said here tonight the United States is arranging a new and broader exchange of atomic information with Great Britain and Canada.

There are about 920,000 employes in the U. S. auto industry.

Land Cruise Taken By Sea Scout Group

Eight Sea Scouts of the Firestone Ship Buccaneer and eight girl friends did some "land cruising" recently.

Their ship was of the "prairie schooner" variety, except that it lacked the canvas top.

But it was piled high with hay for a merry ride along the trail from South Pottstown to Harmonyville.

Skipper and Mrs. Irvin Shollenberger and First Mate and Mrs. George Rightnouer went along as chaperones.

Lawyer to Ask State Aid In Election Investigation

GREENSBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—Atty. Avra N. Pershing Jr. said today he will ask Atty. Gen. Frank F. Truscott for two State police officers to aid him in a special investigation of reported election return descrepancies in the first precinct of nearby Monessen's second ward.

"The court order directs me to investigate and prosecute and I'm going to do just that," Pershing said.

Judge Richard D. Laird appointed Pershing yesterday at the request of Dist. Atty. L. Alexander Sculco, a Democrat, who said he felt "it would be better to have this matter specially investigated."

About 65 percent of the families in the United States own automobiles.

Church Flowers Honor Memory of Loved Ones

SUMNEYTOWN—Phone Haywood 2455. Del., Linwood Renninger. Phone Yellow House 9-4742.

The flowers in the altar vases in St. John's Lutheran church recently honored the memory of Christopher Dauman Sr., and Christopher Dauman Jr., and were the gift of the family.

The flowers at the base of The Cross honored the memory of Mrs. Myrtle Hamm and were the gift of the family.

A basket in the chancel honored the memory of Corp. Russell E. Kulp, who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II, and it was the gift of the family.

Should Have Been a Zoo

CARTHAGE, Mo., Nov. 19 (AP)—A raccoon, a weasel and a 'possum have been spotted on the courthouse square here recently.

The coon and the weasel apparently live in the courthouse but the 'possum's home hasn't been located.

Not only that, but a horde of starlings nest in the trees on the square. They are blamed for breaking the courthouse clock by roosting on the clock's hands.

'Homecoming Ball' to Usher in Holidays

The annual "Homecoming Ball," ushering in the holiday activities in the Boyertown Joint High school, is being sponsored by the "1954 Bear" yearbook staff and has been scheduled for next Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.

The gala affair, which also will mark the debut of the school dance band under the direction of Gerald R. Grabert, will be held in the High school gymnasium. Of the 300 persons who attended the past year's event, more than 100 were alumni, and to better accommodate the alumni this year, special registration tables will be placed.

Charles Haddad, ticket chairman, stated yesterday that there will be no advance ticket sale. Price of tickets will be 75 cents, which will include refreshments. Tickets will be sold at the door only.

Editor-in-chief of the "1954 Bear," Tiia Kari, is general chairman of the dance. Other committees and their members are: entertainment, Carol Ann Sweinhart, chairman; Carol Ann Shelly, Nancy Lou Trout, June Ann Burdan and Patsy Bortz; refreshments, Janet Mest, chairman; Frances Mauger, Jeannetie Nyce, Rosalie Brooke, June Dierolf, Nancy Schoenly, Eva Reidenauer, Eleanor Specht and Louise Ann Sullivan.

Barbara Conrad, Ronald Gerhart and Grace Welsh will help Haddad on the ticket committee. Publicity is in charge of Patricia Jafolla, chairman; Shirley Mantz, Martha Rothenberger, Peggy Saylor, Carol Ann Bechtel, Jeanette Reigner and Linnette Ott.

Service Group Will Treat Veterans to Yule Party

Then on Wednesday night, Dec. 16, the service organization will enjoy its annual Christmas dinner, to be held at Cliff's diner, South Reading avenue, Boyertown.

DEATHS—FUNERALS

Services for ELMER L. BUSH, husband of the late Odie (Jackson) Bush, BOYER TOWNE INN, BOYERTOWN, were held yesterday at 2 p. m. from the Schwenk funeral home, 124 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown.

The Rev. Harper L. Schneck, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown, officiated.

Bearers were fellow employes of the Boyertown Burial Casket company office force: Charles B. Stauffer, Lawrence D. Kohler, Samuel R. Horst, John R. Sullivan, Oscar S. Schultz and Walter C. Brooke.

CARRIE E. LINDERMAN, 60, 142 NORTH READING AVENUE, BOYERTOWN, died on Wednesday night at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis G. Miller, 24 South Franklin street, Boyertown.

A native of Barnesville, she was a daughter of the late Charles and Mossuria (Miller) Folliweiler.

She was stricken ill Sunday at the home of Oscar Schultz, 142 North Reading avenue, Boyertown, where she was employed as a housekeeper.

Surviving are a son, Curtis G., where she died; a step-daughter, Mary, wife of Clarence S. Carl, Parkerford; three grandchildren, and four sisters: Mrs. Annie Kunkel, Krumsville; Mrs. Stashia Hilda Youse, Reading; Mabel, wife of Daniel Kelly, Reading, and Viola, wife of Calvin Kauffman, Hamburg Star Roue. Her husband, Samuel Linderman, died 15 years ago.

Services will be held on Monday at 2 p. m. from the L. W Ott funeral home, 111 North Reading avenue, Boyertown. The Rev. A. G. Woodring, pastor of Grace Mennonite Brethren in Christ church, Reading, and the Rev. Herman B. Showers, pastor of the Methodist church, Bath, will officiate.

Interment will be made in Grimmsville cemetery, Grimmsville.

Class Play Lauded; 700 Persons Attend 'It's a Great Life'

More than 700 persons enthusiastically enjoyed and applauded the characters participating the annual Senior class play production held in the Boyertown Joint High school auditorium Wednesday night.

The play, "It's a Great Life," by Robert Fitch, was a farce comedy in three acts, under the direction of Mrs. Arline H. Fryer, of the school faculty.

The audience appreciated the antics of the "Peabody" household in trying to balance the family budget and keep the rest of the family in line.

Between the acts, the school dance band, under the direction of Gerald R. Grabert, entertained, with Carol Ann Sweinhart as soloist. The play had been presented to several hundred pupils at a matinee showing in the school auditorium Tuesday.

Mrs. Fryer was presented with flowers and a gift on behalf of the excellent job she did directing the play and she in turn thanked everyone who aided her in making the affair a success.

State Group Considers Extending Tax Deadline

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP) — A last minute extension of tomorrow's deadline for returns on the State sales tax might be made by the State Revenue department.

"With new tax laws there has usually been an extension of time and we may do it on the sales tax but not until the last minute," said Joseph C. Snyder, director of the sales tax bureau.

The department began exploring the extension possibility today because only 16,000 returns on the one percent tax were processed as of Monday. Some 180,000 retailers are expected to file returns.

FARE BOOST AUTHORIZED

State Group Considers Extending Tax Deadline

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP) — A last minute extension of tomorrow's deadline for returns on the State sales tax might be made by the State Revenue department.

"With new tax laws there has usually been an extension of time and we may do it on the sales tax but not until the last minute," said Joseph C. Snyder, director of the sales tax bureau.

The department began exploring the extension possibility today because only 16,000 returns on the one percent tax were processed as of Monday. Some 180,000 retailers are expected to file returns.

FARE BOOST AUTHORIZED

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP) — The Public Utility commission today authorized the Trenton - Philadelphia Coach company, Trenton, N. J., to increase its fares an estimated $7800 a year on its Philadelphia and Morrisville line.

SCOUTS SPEND WEEK AT CAMP

Patrol Leaders Take Training Course

The patrol leaders of Evansburg Boy Scout Troop 1 spent a weekend at Camp Delmont, where they participated in a junior leadership training course. The group won first place for cooking and the three boys who remained for the full weekend, Kent Schneider, Charles Gordon and Bruce Fretz, received compasses. Senior Patrol Leader, Jomes Irvine and Explorer crew leader, Bob Bronson, scoutmaster, James Irvine and assistant scoutmaster, Edward Scheer were at the camp for part of the weekend.

Guests of Mrs. Florence Schultz were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bodenhorne of Bayonne, N. J.

The square dance sponsored by the Henry K. Boyer PTA and held on its regularly monthly meeting night was enjoyed by all those attending. A brief business meeting was held prior to the dance at which time announcement was made that the playground equipment was undergoing a general overhauling and a new jungle gym had been purchased but had to be assembled. Irvin Zimmerman, chairman of the house and grounds committee is in charge of this work.

Yuletide Festivities Will Begin Early In Fagleysville With Women's Club Fete

A covered dish Christmas luncheon to precede the Dec. 16 gathering was scheduled at this week's session of the Fagleysville Women's club. A gift exchange will also be held at the same time.

During the business meeting Mrs. Rudolph Kingsepp called for reports from the secretary, Mrs. Daniel March, and the treasurer, Mrs. Charles Hoss.

Entertainment was in the form of a game, "What's my name?"

Mrs. Warren Lewars, Mrs. Clair Norton, Mrs. Wilfred Pickar, Mrs. Clifford Reigle, Mrs. Kenneth Rhoads, Mrs. Eugene Seasholtz, Mrs. Nicholas Schreyer, Mrs. William Weinsteiger and Mrs. Benno Weinsteiger.

The December gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Evans, Fagleysville. Members met this month at Mrs. Kingsepp's residence, Fagleysville.

Rainbow Class of Trinity EC Church Schedules Christmas Banquet for Dec. 8

Mrs. Daniel Kranch, 344 Oak street, was hostess to members of the Rainbow class of the Trinity EC Sunday school this week.

"Thanksgiving," was the theme of devotions given under the direction of Mrs. Charles Frymoyer and Mrs. Wilbur Hook.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Josephine Hoffman, final plans were discussed for the class Christmas banquet, Dec. 8, and Mrs. Charles Rohland and Mrs. Peter Wilhelm were appointed to the committee for the Washington's birthday tea in February.

Mrs. Henrietta Endy, instructor of the class, thanked the members for their fine response, both in attendance and offering, on rally day.

Mrs. Gilbert Roberts was cohostess for the meeting.

Also present, in addition to the above, were Mrs. Stephen Petro, Mrs. Donald Floyd, Mrs. John Wright and Mrs. Howard Wynnings.

ACCORDING TO THE EXPRESSIONS ON THESE ACTORS' FACES, being marooned at Sky High lodge and surrounded by spies doesn't look like a particularly frightening experience. However, the play may have its more frightening moments. Anyone interested in discovering what really happens can see the complete production Tuesday night beginning at 8 p. m. in the North Coventry Elementary school gym.

Mrs. Esther Clark is directing the show. The play was selected by a committee of six: Ruth Gorman, David Clemens, Arlene Richards, Enos Kellar, Cary Shaner and Charles Lightcap. Ushering Tuesday night will be done by Suzanne Kirby, Barbara Lloyd, Ruth Gorman, Ruth Ann Riley and Judy Stieff.

Joan Torak and Suzanne Kirby are taking care of programs. Tickets are under the direction of Jeanne Smith and Judy Stieff. Mary Ann Camaho and Fay Faust are supervising properties for the show. Publicity committee members are Arlene Richards, Ruth Gorman, Mary Ann Camaho and Fay Faust.

Stage committee members are: Donald Laverty, Robert Brannan, Roger Wolf, John Nesley and John Brower. Earl Leary has charge of the lighting effects and William Rowland and Wilbur Yocom will produce the sound effects.

Women's Activities

Class Mothers and Committee Workers Chosen at St. Gabriel's CPTA Meeting

Mrs. William Cooney will be chairman for the party on Dec. 23. Assisting her will be: Mrs. Josiah Strock, Mrs. Henry Kulp, Mrs. Frank Panfile, Mrs. Milton Reinert, Mrs. Michael Barlas, Mrs. Howard Groover, Mrs. Joseph Lucas and Mrs. Midge Takacs.

Mrs. Strock was named chairman of the class mothers. Others chosen include: first grade, Mrs. Lester Romig, Mrs. Louis Del Muto, and Mrs. John Ferenz.

Second grade, Mrs. John Psota, Mrs. Richard Yoder, Mrs. Reinert and Mrs. George Shoop; third and fourth grades, Mrs. William Regan, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Takacs and Mrs. Anthony Kozel; fifth and sixth grades, Mrs. Iral Hatmaker, Mrs. Strock, Mrs. Angelo Palladino and Mrs. Barlas.

Ways and means committee chairmen, Mrs. Groover and Mrs. Reinert discussed the December project of the association.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ray Bomberger. A treasury report was given by Albert Psota.

Sister Mary Theonela's room, grades three and four, won the attendance award. She and the other teachers, Sister Mary Virginia, Sister Mary Carmella and Mrs. Bomberger were present to discuss school matters with the parents.

Mrs. Elisabeth Doty Is Guest Speaker At Meeting of Trinity Women's Guild

"Civic responsibility," was the topic chosen by Mrs. Elisabeth Doty, YWCA executive director, for her talk to the Women's Guild of Trinity Reformed church.

She told the members that it was their duty to study carefully the nominees for public office and try to select people worthy of being leaders.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. George Funk. Mrs. Howard Stauffer had charge of the program and worship service.

It was announced by Mrs. Lloyd Stephens that the Ladies' Aid society would pack cookies Nov. 28 for the Phoebe home for the aged and would deliver them Dec. 2.

ACCORDING TO THE EXPRESSIONS ON THESE ACTORS' FACES, being marooned at Sky High lodge and surrounded by spies doesn't look like a particularly frightening experience. However, the play may have its more frightening moments. Anyone interested in discovering what really happens can see the complete production Tuesday night beginning at 8 p. m. in the North Coventry Elementary school gym.

Mrs. Esther Clark is directing the show. The play was selected by a committee of six: Ruth Gorman, David Clemens, Arlene Richards, Enos Kellar, Cary Shaner and Charles Lightcap. Ushering Tuesday night will be done by Suzanne Kirby, Barbara Lloyd, Ruth Gorman, Ruth Ann Riley and Judy Stieff.

Joan Torak and Suzanne Kirby are taking care of programs. Tickets are under the direction of Jeanne Smith and Judy Stieff. Mary Ann Camaho and Fay Faust are supervising properties for the show. Publicity committee members are Arlene Richards, Ruth Gorman, Mary Ann Camaho and Fay Faust.

Stage committee members are: Donald Laverty, Robert Brannan, Roger Wolf, John Nesley and John Brower. Earl Leary has charge of the lighting effects and William Rowland and Wilbur Yocom will produce the sound effects.

Women's Activities

Mrs. William Cooney will be chairman for the party on Dec: 23. Assisting her will be: Mrs. Josiah Strock, Mrs. Henry Kulp, Mrs. Frank Panfile, Mrs. Milton Reinert, Mrs. Michael Barlas, Mrs. Howard Groover, Mrs. Joseph Lucas and Mrs. Midge Takacs.

Mrs. Strock was named chairman of the class mothers. Others chosen include: first grade, Mrs. Lester Romig, Mrs. Louis Del Muto, and Mrs. John Ferenz.

Second grade, Mrs. John Psota, Mrs. Richard Yoder, Mrs. Reinert and Mrs. George Shoop; third and fourth grades, Mrs. William Regan, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Takacs and Mrs. Anthony Kozel; fifth and sixth grades, Mrs. Iral Hatmaker, Mrs. Strock, Mrs. Angelo Palladino and Mrs. Barlas.

Ways and means committee chairmen, Mrs. Groover and Mrs. Reinert discussed the December project of the association.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ray Bomberger. A treasury report was given by Albert Psota.

Sister Mary Theonela's room, grades three and four, won the attendance award. She and the other teachers, Sister Mary Virginia, Sister Mary Carmella and Mrs. Bomberger were present to discuss school matters with the parents.

Mrs. Elisabeth Doty Is Guest Speaker At Meeting of Trinity Women's Guild

"Civic responsibility," was the topic chosen by Mrs. Elisabeth Doty, YWCA executive director, for her talk to the Women's Guild of Trinity Reformed church.

She told the members that it was their duty to study carefully the nominees for public office and try to select people worthy of being leaders.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. George Funk. Mrs. Howard Stauffer had charge of the program and worship service.

It was announced by Mrs. Lloyd Stephens that the Ladies' Aid society would pack cookies Nov. 28 for the Phoebe home for the aged and would deliver them Dec. 2.

Mrs. Gerald Wentzel Is New President of Missionary Society; Members Hear Address by Mrs. Leon Swavely on Puerto Ricans

Mrs. Leon Swavely spoke on the topic, "Spanish Speaking Lutherans in North America," at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Emmanuel Lutheran church.

Purpose of the program was to familiarize members with the general scope of work and the problems pertaining to the Puerto Rican churches; to study the influence of the Puerto Rican migration at close hand; and to develop some insight into the planning for the future of Spanish speaking Lutherans.

During the business session presided over by Mrs. Lawrence Belman, it was announced that Dr. Fred Fiedler, New York city, would be the guest speaker at the society's thankoffering service, Nov. 29.

Election of officers showed the following results: President, Mrs. Gerald Wentzel; vice president, Mrs. Leroy Moyer; secretary, Mrs. Gerald Hipple; assistant secretary, Laura DeVries; statistical secretary, Elizabeth Dampman; treasurer, Helen Himes; pianist, Mrs. Isaac Richards; assistant pianist, Mrs. Bess Pierce.

Mrs. Edna Shinehouse and Mrs. Leonard Miller will be on the visiting committee for next month.

Hostess for December will be: Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. John DeVincentis, Mrs. Mamie Lafferty and Mrs. Belman.

National Guard Auxiliary Members Hear Talk Given by Salvation Army Officer

"Every Salvation Army officer must have three G's, grace, grit and gumption," Captain C. Robert Flinn of the Pottstown citadel told members of the National Guard Company A auxiliary at their meeting this week.

In his talk to them he discussed the history of the organization, the officers and their training.

The combination religious and charitable organization had its beginnings in the slums of England, and today has citadels in 86 countries.

The training period for officers is five years. One year is spent at one of the Salvation Army colleges in Chicago, San Francisco, New York city, or Atlanta, Ga. The following four years is a combination of on-the-job training and correspondence courses.

In this country there are 3000 officers, men and women, who are field workers, 1000 institutional officers and 1000 executive heads working at the various headquarters.

An added note about the private lives of the officers — they may marry only fellow officers, if they wish to keep their place in the service.

Speaking in three's again, Capt. Flinn told the women that each convert has to have three S's, soap, soup and salvation.

In this Philadelphia area, the Salvation Army maintains a men's rehabilitation center, Booth Memorial hospital, a servicemen's bureau, and the Ivy house, a home for children.

During the auxiliary's business meeting it was announced that the military ball would be March 20. The next meeting of the group will be a Christmas party, Dec. 16.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Petzer, 618 Farmington avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Philipanics Sr., Sprares lane, Mont Clare.

Approximately 200 guests viewed the wedding and heard Mrs. Edward Nagy sing "On This Day" and "Mother at Thy Feet Is Kneeling."

The bride, gowned in antique white satin, was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her waltz length gown was styled with a basque bodice and bouffant skirt embossed with rhinestones and pearls. The strapless dress was topped with a bridal bolero featuring soft roll collar and three quarter length sleeves.

Her fingertip length veil of imported illusion cascaded from a queen's coronet of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a prayer-book with a white orchid.

She carried a bouquet of rust and yellow chrysanthemums, wheat and cat-o-nine tails.

Bridesmaids for the wedding were Mrs. John Panoc Jr., Mrs. Samuel Frock, both sisters of the bride, Pauline Philipanics, sister of the groom, and Helen Marie Dzuryachko, niece of the groom.

Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's in peacock blue, American beauty red, mauve pink and cotillion blue respectively. They carried sprays of white chrysanthemums, wheat and cat-o-nine tails.

Carol Ann Martin, flower girl, was dressed in a mauve pink gown like that of the maid of honor's. She carried a basket of flowers.

George Philipanics, brother of the groom, was the best man. Michael Bodga, James Petzer, brother of the bride, and John Panoc, brother-in-law of the bride, were the ushers. Sammie Frock, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue, and the groom's mother wore a pink lace frock. They both wore orchid corsages.

Mrs. Philipanics was graduated from Pottstown High school and is employed as a secretary to David W. Martin. Her husband is a graduate of Phoenixville High school and is an employe of the Phoenix Iron and Steel company.

Public Invited to East Vincent Recital

An invitation has been extended to the public to attend an organ recital in the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church, Ridge road, Sunday afternoon at 3. The annual affair is being sponsored by the Young Women's class of the church.

The Rev. Eugene Harmony, pastor of Zion's Lutheran church, Schuylkill road, will be the organist. Pauline A. Brown, Catasauqua, will be the vocal soloist.

Store Twine in Bags Once Used for Oranges

The wide-mesh net bags in which oranges are sold in grocery stores make handy containers for balls of twine and wooden handles for heavy packages. The bright orange color makes the bag easy to find even in a crowded storage closet.

Lady Orioles Announce Drill Team Performance

During the business session the group voted to make a donation to the orphans' home supported by the Orioles. Next year's officers were nominated and will be elected at the Dec. 2 meeting.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Petzer, 618 Farmington avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Philipanics Sr., Sprares lane, Mont Clare.

Approximately 200 guests viewed the wedding and heard Mrs. Edward Nagy sing "On This Day" and "Mother at Thy Feet Is Kneeling."

The bride, gowned in antique white satin, was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her waltz length gown was styled with a basque bodice and bouffant skirt embossed with rhinestones and pearls. The strapless dress was topped with a bridal bolero featuring soft roll collar and three quarter length sleeves.

She carried a bouquet of rust and yellow chrysanthemums, wheat and cat-o-nine tails.

Bridesmaids for the wedding were Mrs. John Panoc Jr., Mrs. Samuel Frock, both sisters of the bride, Pauline Philipanics, sister of the groom, and Helen Marie Dzuryachko, niece of the groom.

Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's in peacock blue, American beauty red, mauve pink and cotillion blue respectively. They carried sprays of white chrysanthemums, wheat and cat-o-nine tails.

Carol Ann Martin, flower girl, was dressed in a mauve pink gown like that of the maid of honor's. She carried a basket of flowers.

George Philipanics, brother of the groom, was the best man. Michael Bodga, James Petzer, brother of the bride, and John Panoc, brother-in-law of the bride, were the ushers. Sammie Frock, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue, and the groom's mother wore a pink lace frock. They both wore orchid corsages.

Mrs. Philipanics was graduated from Pottstown High school and is employed as a secretary to David W. Martin. Her husband is a graduate of Phoenixville High school and is an employe of the Phoenix Iron and Steel company.

Public Invited to East Vincent Recital

An invitation has been extended to the public to attend an organ recital in the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church, Ridge road, Sunday afternoon at 3. The annual affair is being sponsored by the Young Women's class of the church.

The Rev. Eugene Harmony, pastor of Zion's Lutheran church, Schuylkill road, will be the organist. Pauline A. Brown, Catasauqua, will be the vocal soloist.

Store Twine in Bags Once Used for Oranges

The wide-mesh net bags in which oranges are sold in grocery stores make handy containers for balls of twine and wooden handles for heavy packages. The bright orange color makes the bag easy to find even in a crowded storage closet.

Lady Orioles Announce Drill Team Performance

During the business session the group voted to make a donation to the orphans' home supported by the Orioles. Next year's officers were nominated and will be elected at the Dec. 2 meeting.

Bedell Leads Trojans

Yeagle Tops Area Scorers; Upper Perk Aces Threaten

By BILL BRADLEY

Bill Yeagle's travelin' tootsies carried him to four TD's as he led Collegeville-Trappe over Schwenksville, 49-13, in the final game of the season for both clubs. That same pair of hot dogs sizzled on an 80-yard scoring jaunt against West Reading and also put the Col ace right on top of the heap in the scoring department.

Ted Kershner, the Schwenks' top man, wound up the season with a total of 50, five behind second place Bob Smith, who tallied in both the Hellertown and the Emmaus games to stay on top of the Upper Perkiomen totem pole.

Another Perk scatback, Del Fritz, wound up in the number four slot for scoring honors in the area by virtue of his three-touchdown romp in the Hellertown tangle. Fritz scored on runs of 40, 47 and 25 yards.

The Indians still have two games to go, one against the Boyertown Bears on Saturday, and on Turkey Day, against the erring Royersford Eagles. With the Cols and the Bluebirds finished for the season, Smith and Fritz stand a good chance of winding up numbers one and two in the current scoring campaign.

Royersford's Charlie Miller tallied as the Eagles dropped a 26-13 verdict to Yeadon, to haul himself up to 30 points for the season. And Ted Wojton hit the scoring column for the first time by notching the Eagles' second TD of that game, and booting the extra point.

Dave Erb replaced glue-fingered end Jim Heydt as the big man on the Boyertown team. Erb hit pay-dirt for the Bears' only two markers in the Governor Mifflin tiff, tallied once in the Bear-Spring City clash, and stood out in a losing cause as Boyertown went down before powerful Muhlenberg township, 14-6.

DOWN SPRING City way, Dave Finkbiner and Bill Bainbridge both scored for the first time this season as they ended a six-game scoreless and winless string by astounding a strong Wilson club, 13-13. Finkbiner's marker and his conversion made him Buc back Number One with a game left to go.

Howie Bedell retained his lead in the Trojans' scoring race by winding up in the end zone twice to lead Pottstown to a 20-7 win over Bridgeport. Two players, Jim Kirk and Al Bodolus, admitted themselves to the league of six-pointers, Kirk against the Dragons and Bodolus against Berwyn. Tom Troutman added to his record of conversions by booting two against Bridgeport and the all-important one against Berwyn that gave the local gridders a 7-7 stalemate.

As far as Pottstown Junior High is concerned, Bob Sandoe gained enough ground to go into the real estate business, as he traveled 61, 61 and 69 yards for three TD's against Stewart. Pointwise, the long rambles put the Cub sprinaer ahead of Ken Wensel as the season ended for the Cubs with a 7-0 defeat at the hands of West Chester.

HILL SCHOOL, completing one of its finest seasons in years, unbeaten and tied once in seven games, finished the season with three backs knotted for the honors.

A well balanced attack doesn't depend on a one-man team, and the Blue provided a good example, as each of the three men, Walt Levering, Pete Jones and Dave Reidenour, a Pottstown boy who played with the Cubs but bypassed the Trojans, scored only 18 points. The Blue rolled up 136 points against their opponents' 69.

Dave Riordan, Hill EP specialist, crossed the final chalk mark for the first time in 1953 during the Blair game, a game in which Reidenour scored twice and passed for a third to lead the Blue to a 27-20 victory. Riordan, who has kicked nine extra points this season, aced three that game and another two as Hill tied its traditional rival, Lawrenceville, 26-26, in the final game of the season.

It was in the Lawrenceville scrap that Tom Merlin picked up his only six points of the year, but the TD was the one that counted — the payoff that gave the Blue a hard earned deadlock and an unbeaten season.

North Coventry, which tied Spring City, 0-0, in its season's finale in October, has no one in the running for scoring honors. Ron Domin came out on top for the Wildcats with 13 points.

Trojans Travel to Coatesville Today; Meyers Looks for Tough Game

This is the time of year when all teams look tough to a championship football contender and the Pottstown High school Trojans are no exception.

Pottstown goes on the road this afternoon to play winless Coatesville in a Ches-Mont League game, and from Coach Heeb Meyers on down, the squad knows it can't afford a let-down. Game time is 2:00 o'clock.

The Trojans are well up in the running for the league title, with a two-won, one-lost and one-tied record to date. Only rugged Downingtown remains on the schedule after Coatesville, and two wins virtually would assure the local boys of the crown.

"I haven't seen Coatesville since early in the season, when they had a lot of injuries, but I understand they've been improving and have their injured players back," said Meyers.

"We look for a tough game, their record notwithstanding."

THE BIGGEST Pottstown worry, besides overconfidence, is a number of injuries to key defensive players. Meyers said, however, that while the players are injured, all of them probably will be able to see some action.

"Fortunately, none of the injuries is serious, and the players seem to feel better as game time nears," Myers noted.

The coach said he had his team drilling on fundamentals this week, for the most part, and that he was satisfied with the shape of the team, outside of the disabled list.

HE'LL START the same lineup he's been using of late. That will show Mac Shirey and Milt Wensel at the ends; Larry Lawler and Bill Fisher at the tackles, Joe Schutz and Joe Rettew at the guards, and Jack Babel at center, on the line; starting offensive backs will be Jim Kirk at quarter, Clark and Carl Burns at the halves and Bill "Red" Kerr at fullback.

On the defense seven shifts are made, with Rettew shifting from guard to linebacker and calling the defensive signals for the team. Other moves include putting Earl Hunsicker in place of Lawler at tackle, Jim Porter in for Shirey, who moves to a linebacker post, and Howie Bedell in as a backfield defender.

Meyers said Bedell had been removed from the starting offensive lineup in place of Carl Burns, but played on defense all the time.

"He intercepted four passes last week—only three of which were allowed by the officials—and played a tremendous game on defense," Meyers said.

"And of course, he'll be in there on offense, too."

Davis Cup Preview

Aussie Tennis Stars Smash US Aces

SYDNEY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Australia's 19-year-old whiz kids, Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad, scored smashing single victories over America's two top tennis aces today and buoyed this country's hopes of retaining the Davis Cup.

The United States champion, Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, and the Wimbledon titleholder, Philadelphia's Vic Seixas, were able to salvage only one set between them in the semi-finals of the New South Wales championship — the first preview of the challenge matches at Melbourne next month.

Trabert, with all his hitting power, proved no match for Hoad, who blasted out a 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, 7-5 victory. Seixas fell before the stylish Rosewall, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

These results reversed the outcome of the semi-finals of the US championships at Forrest Hills the past September when Seixas defeated Hoad and Trabert downed Rosewall, both in straight sets.

Rosewall and Hoad will meet for the New South Wales title Saturday. Tomorrow, they pair against Trabert and Seixas in the doubles final.

These are the players the US and Australia are expecetd to send on the court in the Davis Cup challenge round at Melbourne Dec. 28-30.

A bit pessimistic after the rout of their stars in the Wimbledon and US tournaments. Australians now feel very good over their prospects of keeping the international trophy.

Martinez Favored To Defeat Vejar In Televised Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Handsome Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., meets Soldier Chico Vejar tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden in a renewal of their bitter battle of March 13 in which Chico upset the 1952 "rookie of the year."

The ten-round welterweight scrap, starting at 10 p. m., will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC).

Things have changed since Vejar, a long shot underdog, whipped the New Jersey bobby sox idol eight months ago. Chico, then a drama student at New York university, has joined the Army. He is fighting on leave from Ft. Benning, Ga.

Overlooking the last fight, on the theory that Vejar has had only two fights since March, Martinez has been made a 12 to 5 favorite. He could very well be a false favorite, for the 22-year-old private is determined to make a good showing for the boys who will be watching back in camp.

If Martinez whips Vejar, matchmaker Billy Brown will offer manager Tex Pelte a match with Joey Klein, Carmine Fiore, Rocky Casillo or Gerry Dreyer. As Vejar has to report back to camp Monday morning, there are no matches in view for him. The fellow he really wants is Chuck Davey.

Slade Scores Kayo

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 19 (AP)—Jimmy Slade, 180, of New York, used a lusty two-fisted barrage to the head to gain a four-round technical knockout decision over Herman Harris, 173, of Asheville, N. C., in their scheduled 10-round feature boxing bout tonight at the Casino.

Napoleon Meets Waterloo

Stanford Star Surrenders to FBI

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Al Napoleon, Stanford halfback sought on draft violation charges, surrendered today to FBI agents, was brought before US Commissioner Joseph Karesh here—and then was granted a two-week delay in proceedings against him.

The action freed the 21-year-old football player to participate in Saturday's annual California - Stanford "big game," on which depends his team's hopes of playing in the Rose Bowl.

A warrant for Napoleon's arrest on charges of failure to report for induction the past July 15 was received here yesterday from Napoleon's home town of Honolulu. A. William Barlow, US attorney for Hawaii, said Napoleon, who was classified 1-A in June, 1952, was deferred through last June, but further deferments were refused and he was ordered to report.

However, the 175-pound breakaway back, who scored Stanford's winning touchdown over Rose Bowl rival UCLA last month, said he had never received any notice to report. He stressed he was willing to enter the Army.

THIS AFTERNOON, Napoleon surrendered to two FBI agents at the office of Robert Huff, Stanford assistant counselor of men, and was brought to San Francisco for an appearance before Commissioner Karesh.

After his brief appearance, Napoleon repeated to reporters that the warrant came as a surprise to him and added:

"I'll volunteer for the Army any time they want me to. I can't understand where the foul-up came."

It was understood that Napoleon would be given permission to volunteer for service and the case against him would then be dropped.

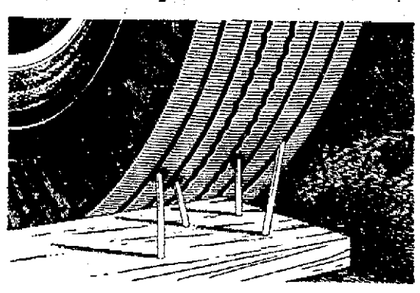
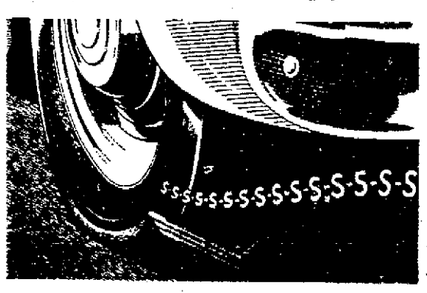
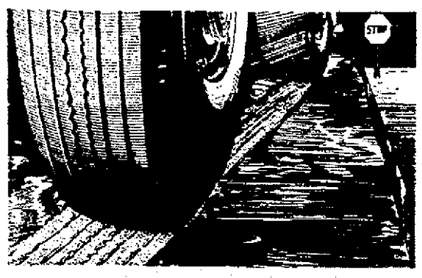
B.F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire
can be your LIFE-SAVER when these happen:


Drive over spikes — no loss of air
When the BFG LIFE-SAVER is punctured — you drive on as if nothing happened. Patented sealing compound inside seals around the spike, keeps air in. Later, when spike is removed, it plugs the hole, making a permanent repair.


Damaging impact — s-s-slowout instead of a blowout — In regular tire, impact causes a bruise-break which pinches tube. Weakened, the tube finally blows out with a bang! But the BFG LIFE-SAVER has no tube to blow out. When bruise-damaged, its inner liner develops tiny leaks. You lose air s-s-slowly. Have time for a safe stop!


Slippery road — you stop quickly
The BFG LIFE-SAVER tread has thousands of tiny, flexible grip-blocks. They act like gripping fingers on slippery roads. Stop you as much as 30% quicker in rain. In tests, BFG LIFE-SAVERS outstopped, outstarted, outpulled regular tires.
And BFG LIFE-SAVER protection costs little!
Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth 6.70-15 plus tax and your tire — $30.95 each
Mercury, Dodge, Pontiac, Studebaker 7.10-15 plus tax and your tire — $34.45 each
Oldsmobile, Buick, De Soto, Hudson 7.60-15 plus tax and your tire — $37.95 each
And it costs less than any regular tire and blowout-protecting tube. Fits your present rims. As low as $1.00 down and your old tire puts one on today.

The Indians still have two games to go, one against the Boyertown Bears on Saturday, and on Turkey Day, against the erring Royersford Eagles. With the Cols and the Bluebirds finished for the season, Smith and Fritz stand a good chance of winding up numbers one and two in the current scoring campaign.

Royersford's Charlie Miller tallied as the Eagles dropped a 26-13 verdict to Yeadon, to haul himself up to 30 points for the season. And Ted Wojton hit the scoring column for the first time by notching the Eagles' second TD of that game and booting the extra point.

Dave Erb replaced glue-fingered end Jim Heydt as the big man on the Boyertown team. Erb hit paydirt for the Bears' only two markers in the Governor Mifflin tiff, tallied once in the Bear-Spring City clash, and stood out in a losing cause as Boyertown went down before powerful Muhlenberg township, 14-6.

DOWN SPRING City way, Dave Finkbiner and Bill Bainbridge both scored for the first time this season as they ended a six-game scoreless and winless string by astounding a strong Wilson club, 13-13. Finkbiner's marker and his conversion made him Buc back Number One with a game left to go.

Howie Bedell retained his lead in the Trojans' scoring race by winding up in the end zone twice to lead Pottstown to a 20-7 win over Bridgeport. Two players, Jim Kirk and Al Bodolus, admitted themselves to the league of six-pointers, Kirk against the Dragons and Bodolus against Berwyn. Tom Troutman added to his record of conversions by booting two against Bridgeport and the all important one against Berwyn that gave the local gridders a 7-7 stalemate.

As far as Pottstown Junior High is concerned, Bob Sandoe gained enough ground to go into the real estate business, as he traveled 61, 61 and 69 yards for three TD's against Stewart. Pointwise, the long rambles put the Cub sprinaer ahead of Ken Wensel as the season ended for the Cubs with a 7-0 defeat at the hands of West Chester.

HILL SCHOOL, completing one of its finest seasons in years, unbeaten and tied once in seven games, finished the season with three backs knotted for the honors.

A well balanced attack doesn't depend on a one-man team, and the Blue provided a good example, as each of the three men, Walt Levering, Pete Jones and Dave Reidenour, a Pottstown boy who played with the Cubs but bypassed the Trojans, scored only 18 points. The Blue rolled up 136 points against their opponents' 69.

Dave Riordan, Hill EP specialist, crossed the final chalk mark for the first time in 1953 during the Blair game, a game in which Reidenour scored twice and passed for a third to lead the Blue to a 27-20 victory. Riordan, who has kicked nine extra points this season, aced three that game and another two as Hill tied its traditional rival, Lawrenceville, 26-26, in the final game of the season.

It was in the Lawrenceville scrap that Tom Merlin picked up his only six points of the year, but the TD was the one that counted — the payoff that gave the Blue a hard earned deadlock and an unbeaten season.

North Coventry, which tied Spring City, 0-0, in its season's finale in Ches-Mont, has no one in the running for scoring honors. Ron Domin came out on top for the Wildcats with 13 points.

Still in the Running

This is the time of year when all teams look tough to a championship football contender and the Pottstown High school Trojans are no exception.

Pottstown goes on the road this afternoon to play winless Coatesville in a Ches-Mont League game, and from Coach Heeb Meyers on down, the squad knows it can't afford a let-down. Game time is 2:00 o'clock.

The Trojans are well up in the running for the league title, with a two-won, one-lost and one-tied record to date. Only rugged Downingtown remains on the schedule after Coatesville, and two wins virtually would assure the local boys of the crown.

"I haven't seen Coatesville since early in the season, when they had a lot of injuries, but I understand they've been improving and have their injured players back," said Meyers.

THE BIGGEST Pottstown worry, besides overconfidence, is a number of injuries to key defensive players. Meyers said, however, that while the players are injured, all of them probably will be able to see some action.

"Fortunately, none of the injuries is serious, and the players seem to feel better as game time nears," Myers noted.

The coach said he had his team drilling on fundamentals this week, for the most part, and that he was satisfied with the shape of the team, outside of the disabled list.

HE'LL START the same lineup he's been using of late. That will show Mac Shirey and Milt Wensel at the ends; Larry Lawler and Bill Fisher at the tackles, Joe Schutz and Joe Rettew at the guards, and Jack Babel at center, on the line; starting offensive backs will be Jim Kirk at quarter, Clark and Carl Burns at the halves and Bill "Red" Kerr at fullback.

On the defense seven shifts are made, with Rettew shifting from guard to linebacker and calling the defensive signals for the team. Other moves include putting Earl Hunsicker in place of Lawler at tackle, Jim Porter in for Shirey, who moves to a linebacker post, and Howie Bedell in as a backfield defender.

Meyers said Bedell had been removed from the starting offensive lineup in place of Carl Burns, but played on defense all the time.

"He intercepted four passes last week—only three of which were allowed by the officials—and played a tremendous game on defense," Meyers said.

"And of course, he'll be in there on offense, too."

Davis Cup Preview

Aussie Tennis Stars Smash US Aces

SYDNEY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Australia's 19-year-old whiz kids, Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad, scored smashing single victories over America's two top tennis aces today and buoyed this country's hopes of retaining the Davis Cup.

The United States champion, Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, and the Wimbledon titleholder, Philadelphia's Vic Seixas, were able to salvage only one set between them in the semi-finals of the New South Wales championship — the first preview of the challenge matches at Melbourne next month.

Trabert, with all his hitting power, proved no match for Hoad, who blasted out a 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, 7-5 victory. Seixas fell before the stylish Rosewall, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

These results reversed the outcome of the semi-finals of the US championships at Forrest Hills the past September when Seixas defeated Hoad and Trabert downed Rosewall, both in straight sets.

Rosewall and Hoad will meet for the New South Wales title Saturday. Tomorrow, they pair against Trabert and Seixas in the doubles final.

These are the players the US and Australia are expecetd to send on the court in the Davis Cup challenge round at Melbourne Dec. 28-30.

A bit pessimistic after the rout of their stars in the Wimbledon and US tournaments, Australians now feel very good over their prospects of keeping the international trophy.

Stowe Old Timers Meet At Fire House Tonight

The Stowe Old Timers Baseball association will hold a committee meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the West End Fire company building.

Chairman Clyde Ludwig urged all committeemen to be present. Reservations for the association's 26th annual banquet will be made at the meeting, Ludwig said.

Martinez Favored To Defeat Vejar In Televised Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Handsome Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., meets Soldier Chico Vejar tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden in a renewal of their bitter battle of March 13 in which Chico upset the 1952 "rookie of the year."

The ten-round welterweight scrap, starting at 10 p. m., will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC).

Things have changed since Vejar, a long shot underdog, whipped the New Jersey bobby sox idol eight months ago. Chico, then a drama student at New York university, has joined the Army. He is fighting on leave from Ft. Benning, Ga.

Overlooking the last fight, on the theory that Vejar has had only two fights since March, Martinez has been made a 12 to 5 favorite. He could very well be a false favorite, for the 22-year-old private is determined to make a good showing for the boys who will be watching back in camp.

If Martinez whips Vejar, matchmaker Billy Brown will offer manager Tex Pelte a match with Joey Klein, Carmine Fiore, Rocky Casillo or Gerry Dreyer. As Vejar has to report back to camp Monday morning, there are no matches in view for him. The fellow he really wants is Chuck Davey.

Phoenix Legion Leads Shuffleboard League

The Phoenixville American Legion blanked the Pottstown Eagles, 5-0, Tuesday night to take the lead in the Pottstown shuffleboard league.

The Phoenixville Hungarian club droped from first to a tie with the Phoenixville Junior Moose for second place when it was edged, 3-2, by the South Pottstown Quoit club.

Slade Scores Kayo

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 19 (AP)—Jimmy Slade, 180, of New York, used a lusty two-fisted barrage to the head to gain a four-round technical knockout decision over Herman Harris, 173, of Asheville, N. C., in their scheduled 10-round feature boxing bout tonight at the Casino.

Napoleon Meets Waterloo

Stanford Star Surrenders to FBI

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Al Napoleon, Stanford halfback sought on draft violation charges, surrendered today to FBI agents, was brought before US Commissioner Joseph Karesh here—and then was granted a two-week delay in proceedings against him.

The action freed the 21-year-old football player to participate in Saturday's annual California - Stanford "big game," on which depends his team's hopes of playing in the Rose Bowl.

A warrant for Napoleon's arrest on charges of failure to report for induction the past July 15 was received here yesterday from Napoleon's home town of Honolulu. A. William Barlow, US attorney for Hawaii, said Napoleon, who was classified 1-A in June, 1952, was deferred through last June, but further deferments were refused and he was ordered to report.

However, the 175-pound breakaway back, who scored Stanford's winning touchdown over Rose Bowl rival UCLA last month, said he had never received any notice to report. He stressed he was willing to enter the Army.

THIS AFTERNOON, Napoleon surrendered to two FBI agents at the office of Robert Huff, Stanford assistant counselor of men, and was brought to San Francisco for an appearance before Commissioner Karesh.

After his brief appearance, Napoleon repeated to reporters that the warrant came as a surprise to him and added:

"I'll volunteer for the Army any time they want me to. I can't understand where the foul-up came."

It was understood that Napoleon would be given permission to volunteer for service and the case against him would then be dropped.

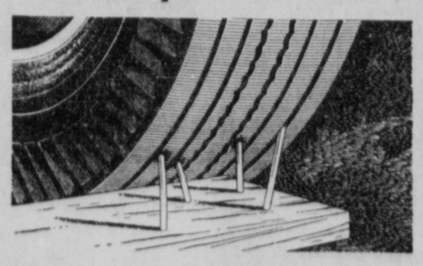
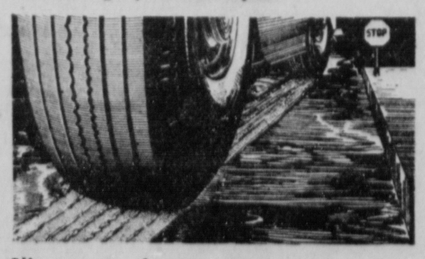
B.F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire
can be your LIFE-SAVER when these happen:


Drive over spikes — no loss of air
When the BFG LIFE-SAVER is punctured — you drive on as if nothing happened. Patented sealing compound inside seals around the spike, keeps air in. Later, when spike is removed, it plugs the hole, making a permanent repair.

Damaging impact — s-s-slowout instead of a blowout — In regular tire, impact causes a bruise-break which pinches tube. Weakened, the tube finally blows out with a bang! But the BFG LIFE-SAVER has no tube to blow out. When bruise-damaged, its inner liner develops tiny leaks. You lose air s-s-slowly. Have time for a safe stop!


Slippery road — you stop quickly
The BFG LIFE-SAVER tread has thousands of tiny, flexible grip-blocks. They act like gripping fingers on slippery roads. Stop you as much as 30% quicker in rain. In tests, BFG LIFE-SAVERS outstopped, outstarted, outpulled regular tires.
And BFG LIFE-SAVER protection costs little!
Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth 6.70-15 plus tax and your tire $30.95 each
Mercury, Dodge, Pontiac, Studebaker 7.10-15 plus tax and your tire $34.45 each
Oldsmobile, Buick, De Soto, Hudson 7.60-15 plus tax and your tire $37.95 each
And it costs less than any regular tire and blowout-protecting tube. Fits your present rims. As low as $1.00 down and your old tire puts one on today.

Irish, Terps Picked to Roll Unbeaten; Writer Sees Minnesota Pulling Upset

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Throw away your slide rules, crystal balls and comparative scores. This is late November when bowl pressures run heavy and football traditions deep.

Be prepared for more upsets. Anything goes. Last week we hit, on our specials—Alabama over Georgika Tech and Wisconsin over Illinois — and had a 37-11 mark for a .771 percentage.

Let's batten down the hatches for another stormy week:

Notre Dame over Iowa: Coach Frank Leahy and his aides privately are more afraid of this one than any on the schedule Iowa is tough, always good against Notre Dame and the Irish are apt to be thinking of Southern Cal a week hence.

UCLA over Southern California. The Uclans, stung 14-12 a year ago, are out to get even and they're smelling Rose Bowl petals.

MARYLAND OVER Alabama: The Crimson Tide can match Maryland's size and speed but they don't have Bernie Faloney, the country's best T-quarterback.

Michigan State over Marquette: The Spartans will try to roll up a big score to impress Big Ten bowl selectors. About 35-0.

Illinois over Northwestern: J C Caroline can't be stopped every week. Illinois will be low but a winner, about 21-14.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: The Sooners have matured and now are capable of beating any team in the country, including Notre Dame.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: The week's main upset. Paul Giel has one of his best days against a team still gloating over the Illini victory.

KENTUCKY OVER Tennessee. Coach Bob Neyland had the "Indian sign" on Kentucky, which never beat him, but Neyland is no longer around.

Yale over Harvard. If Dick Clasby's ready, the Crimson may pull an upset but it looks like the Elis, who won't throw in the water boy again.

Baylor over Southern Methodist: The Bears recover after two straight defeats.

Midwest — Indiana over Purdue, Missouri over Kansas, Ohio State over Michigan.

Southwest—Arkansas over Louisiana State, Tulsa over Detroit, Hardin-Simmons over North Texas State, Texas Tech over Houston.

Far West—Stanford over California, Colorado A&M over New Mexico, Washington over Washington State, Oregan over Oregon State, Kansas State over Arizona, Idaho over Utah State, Arizona State at Tempe over Midwestern.

Trojans' Air Game May Topple UCLA In Coast Classic

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19 (AP) — Long time followers of the University of Southern California may be mildly amazed if anyone said the Trojans' passing game may spell defeat for UCLA here Saturday.

But the 90,000 expected fans, and the national television audience, may see just that when the two teams meet in their final Pacific Coast conference-Rose Bowl tinted game. Power stuff used to be the thing for Trojan teams.

The odd part is that none of the Trojan passers, such as Aramis Dandoy, Desmond Koch or any of the other three or four throwers, is exceptional in this department.

Their combined aerial efforts this season, however, have netted 802 yards, which is almost 300 more yards than UCLA, with a slightly better passer in Halfback Paul Cameron, has been able to accumulate.

UCLA's main strength is on the ground. Cameron, 34, leads the loop in rushing. And he has capable support on charges down the middle from two fullbacks, 168-pound Pete Dailey, 31, and a 190-pound sophomore, Bob Davenport, 27, and an interesting partner on reverses in either Bill Stits, 24, or Don Stalwick, 30, both right halfbacks.

The UCLA rushing game has netted 1980 yards, topping the conference.

Both teams use the single wing offense, UCLA from a balanced line and USC from an unbalanced line. The Trojans frequently shift to the T-formation, however.

UCLA must win this one if it hopes to stay in a tie or go in front of Stanford, which plays California, in the Rose Bowl chase.

Orange Squad Ready

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Syracuse University's football team had its last home workout of the season today in warm weather that made it seem more like the first season drill than the last.

Syracuse is a two-touchdown favorite.

Richmond Franchise In Doubtful State

During a two-hour and 18-minute meeting today, Eddie Mooers, who has owned the Richmond Colts for 22 years and has operated them for 21 years in the Piedmont League, offered to sell the franchise to Harry C. Seibold.

Seibold is a Richmond industrialist who would become the operator of a Richmond franchise in the Triple-A International League. The Piedmont League is a Class B circuit.

At the meeting, Seibold made an offer to Mooers for the latter's franchise rights and the lease of Mooers Field. Mooers responded with a counter-offer.

Neither Mooers nor Seibold would reveal the terms of Seibold's offer or Mooers' counter-offer.

Seibold said tonight he believed he would say now—and not next week when a second meeting had been tentatively scheduled with Mooers— that "the stipulations as set forth by Mr. Mooers in his counter-offer will be unacceptable to the International League and are definitely unacceptable to me."

Pitt in Top Shape

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19 (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh football team will be near its physical peak for the annual game here Saturday with Penn State, Coach Lowell (Red) Dawson said today.

Dick Deitrick, sidelined since Nov. 7 with a mild concussion, will be back at his right end position. Of the regulars, only Right Tackle Eldred Kraemer will be missing. He's out with a knee injury.

TOP CONTENDER GETS EASY WIN

Johnson Hammers Out Unanimous Decision Over Wright

HERSHEY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, number one contender for the light heavyweight title, tonight scored an easy unanimous 10-round decision over Chubby Wright, steelworker from Reading. Johnson at 177 conceded nine pounds to Wright but made up for it in speed and punching power.

Only 761 fans came to the Hershey Sports arena and paid $2236 to see Johnson take over after the third round and open cuts over Wright's eyes and on his nose by the seventh. The winner was unmarked.

Wright's best rounds were the first and second, in which Johnson fought cautiously. After that the man who has beaten such competition as Ezzard Charles scored almost at will.

Wright made an all-out effort in the sixth round when he hurled a flurry of wild punches at Johnson but Harold stepped out of the way neatly and continued to do his damage with a barrage of rights.

In the semi-windup George Johnson, 154¼, Trenton, N. J., knocked out Billy Whye, 156½, Philadelphia, at 1:51 of the 5th round. Whye was ordered to Harrisburg hospital by Dr. William Banton when he complained of feeling "foggy" after the bout.

Marty Feldman, 152, Philadelphia, scored a TKO over Adolph Black, 150, Reading, when Black failed to answer the bell for the last round of a four-rounder. Choo Choo Benson, 152, Philadelphia, scored a six-round decision over Emmett Norris, 159½, Steelton and Billy Walker, 135, Philadelphia, recorded a TKO over Leonard Scott, 134½ of Reading, in 2:05 of the fourth and last round.

Mathews Runner-Up

Roy Campanella Tops 'Most Valuable' Vote

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's chunky, veteran catcher, today was voted most valuable player in the National League for the second time in three years.

When reporters finally tracked down Campanella—who was celebrating his 32nd birthday—at his Harlem liquor store, he grinned and said, "It makes a man feel pretty good I can't ask for too much more in life, I guess."

The vote by a 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America, three from each league city, was decisive. Campanella drew 17 firsts and piled up 297 points, highest point total since Stan Musial of St. Louis won with 303 in 1948.

Campanella became the fourth man to be named most valuable in the National more than once. He had won in 1951. Musial is the only three-time winner with victories in 1943, 1946 and 1948. Carl Hubbell won in 1933 and 1936 and Rogers Hornsby in 1925 and 1929.

Eddie Mathews, the home run hitting third baseman of the Milwaukee Braves, finished second, 81 points back at 216. The point score is figured on the basis of 14 for first place, nine for second and so on down to one for a tenth.

Duke Snider, Brooklyn's slugging center fielder, nosed out St. Louis' Red Schoendienst for third place, 157 to 155. Warren Spahn, Milwaukee lefthanded pitcher, was fifth with 120 points and Robin Roberts, the Phillies' righthanded ace, followed with 106 points.

Mathews received three first place votes, Schoendienst two and Snider and Roberts, one each.

BROOKLYN, as expected, dominated the voting, placing seven men among the first 14 on the list. The only Dodger regulars who didn't receive votes were Billy Cox and Junior Gilliam. Milwaukee and Philadelphia each had four men, St Louis and New York three each and Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, two each Chicago did not place a man on the list.

The 1952 voting was a close fit among Sauer, Roberts and Black, with the Chicago slugger finishing on top. Campanella was 10th with 25 points and Mathews was 21st with only 13 points.

CAMPANELLA enjoyed a sensational early season. He had driven in 53 runs and hit 17 home runs by May 30. At the All-Star break in early July, he had knocked in 73 and hit 22 homers. He finished up at .312, leading the league with 142 runs batted in. He hit 25 doubles, three triples and 41 homers while playing 144 games. The runs batted in and homers were new league records for catchers.

"I felt this was my best season," he said. "It was the first time I've been able to play all the way through with no serious injury. I feel just as good as when I came up. I get a kick out of playing. I hope I can keep on catching as long as I live."

"I'll be here in the store every day until time to go to Spring training," he said. "Don Newcombe, Larry Doby, Joe Black and I expect to go to Hot Springs about Feb. 1 to start working out."

Player Breaks Arm In Football Workout

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 19 (AP)—Guard Al D'Angelo was lost to North Carolina State for the remainder of the season when he broke his arm in practice today.

Irish, Terps Picked to Roll Unbeaten; Writer Sees Minnesota Pulling Upset

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Throw away your slide rules, crystal balls and comparative scores. This is late November when bowl pressures run heavy and football traditions deep.

Be prepared for more upsets. Anything goes. Last week we hit, on our specials—Alabama over Georgika Tech and Wisconsin over Illinois — and had a 37-11 mark for a .771 percentage.

Let's batten down the hatches for another stormy week:

Notre Dame over Iowa: Coach Frank Leahy and his aides privately are more afraid of this one than any on the schedule. Iowa is tough, always good against Notre Dame and the Irish are apt to be thinking of Southern Cal a week hence.

UCLA over Southern California: The Uclans, stung 14-12 a year ago, are out to get even and they're smelling Rose Bowl petals.

MARYLAND OVER Alabama: The Crimson Tide can match Maryland's size and speed but they don't have Bernie Faloney, the country's best T-quarterback.

Michigan State over Marquette: The Spartans will try to roll up a big score to impress Big Ten bowl selectors. About 35-0.

Illinois over Northwestern: J. C. Caroline can't be stopped every week. Illinois will be low but a winner, about 21-14.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: The Sooners have matured and now are capable of beating any team in the country, including Notre Dame.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: The week's main upset. Paul Giel has one of his best days against a team still gloating over the Illini victory.

KENTUCKY OVER Tennessee: Coach Bob Neyland had the "Indian sign" on Kentucky, which never beat him, but Neyland is no longer around.

Yale over Harvard: If Dick Clasby's ready, the Crimson may pull an upset but it looks like the Elis, who won't throw in the water boy again.

Baylor over Southern Methodist: The Bears recover after two straight defeats.

Midwest — Indiana over Purdue, Missouri over Kansas, Ohio State over Michigan.

Southwest—Arkansas over Louisiana State, Tulsa over Detroit, Hardin-Simmons over North Texas State, Texas Tech over Houston.

Far West—Stanford over California, Colorado A&M over New Mexico, Washington over Washington State, Oregan over Oregon State, Kansas State over Arizona, Idaho over Utah State, Arizona State at Tempe over Midwestern.

Trojans' Air Game May Topple UCLA In Coast Classic

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19 (AP) — Long time followers of the University of Southern California may be mildly amazed if anyone said the Trojans' passing game may spell defeat for UCLA here Saturday.

But the 90,000 expected fans, and the national television audience, may see just that when the two teams meet in their final Pacific Coast conference-Rose Bowl tinted game. Power stuff used to be the thing for Trojan teams.

The odd part is that none of the Trojan passers, such as Aramis Dandoy, Desmond Koch or any of the other three or four throwers, is exceptional in this department.

Their combined aerial efforts this season, however, have netted 802 yards, which is almost 300 more yards than UCLA, with a slightly better passer in Halfback Paul Cameron, has been able to accumulate.

UCLA's main strength is on the ground. Cameron, 34, leads the loop in rushing. And he has capable support on charges down the middle from two fullbacks, 168-pound Pete Dailey, 31, and a 190-pound sophomore, Bob Davenport, 27, and an interesting partner on reverses in either Bill Stits, 24, or Don Stalwick, 30, both right halfbacks.

The UCLA rushing game has netted 1980 yards, topping the conference.

Both teams use the single wing offense, UCLA from a balanced line and USC from an unbalanced line. The Trojans frequently shift to the T-formation, however.

UCLA must win this one if it hopes to stay in a tie or go in front of Stanford, which plays California, in the Rose Bowl chase.

TOP CONTENDER GETS EASY WIN

Johnson Hammers Out Unanimous Decision Over Wright

HERSHEY, Nov. 19 (AP)—Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, number one contender for the light heavyweight title, tonight scored an easy unanimous 10-round decision over Chubby Wright, steelworker from Reading. Johnson at 177 conceded nine pounds to Wright but made up for it in speed and punching power.

Only 761 fans came to the Hershey Sports arena and paid $2236 to see Johnson take over after the third round and open cuts over Wright's eyes and on his nose by the seventh. The winner was unmarked.

Wright's best rounds were the first and second, in which Johnson fought cautiously. After that the man who has beaten such competition as Ezzard Charles scored almost at will.

Wright made an all-out effort in the sixth round when he hurled a flurry of wild punches at Johnson but Harold stepped out of the way neatly and continued to do his damage with a barrage of rights.

In the semi-windup George Johnson, 154¾, Trenton, N. J., knocked out Billy Whye, 156½, Philadelphia, at 1:51 of the 5th round. Whye was ordered to Harrisburg hospital by Dr. William Banton when he complained of feeling "foggy" after the bout.

Marty Feldman, 152, Philadelphia, scored a TKO over Adolph Black, 150, Reading, when Black failed to answer the bell for the last round of a four-rounder. Choo Choo Benson, 152, Philadelphia, scored a six-round decision over Emmett Norris, 159½, Steelton and Billy Walker, 135, Philadelphia, recorded a TKO over Leonard Scott, 134½ of Reading, in 2:05 of the fourth and last round.

Orange Squad Ready

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Syracuse University's football team had its last home workout of the season today in warm weather that made it seem more like the first season drill than the last.

Syracuse is a two-touchdown favorite.

Mathews Runner-Up

Roy Campanella Tops 'Most Valuable' Vote

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's chunky, veteran catcher, today was voted most valuable player in the National League for the second time in three years.

When reporters finally tracked down Campanella—who was celebrating his 32nd birthday—at his Harlem liquor store, he grinned and said, "It makes a man feel pretty good. I can't ask for too much more in life, I guess."

The vote by a 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America, three from each league city, was decisive. Campanella drew 17 firsts and piled up 297 points, highest point total since Stan Musial of St. Louis won with 303 in 1948.

Campanella became the fourth man to be named most valuable in the National more than once. He had won in 1951. Musial is the only three-time winner with victories in 1943, 1946 and 1948. Carl Hubbell won in 1933 and 1936 and Rogers Hornsby in 1925 and 1929.

Eddie Mathews, the home run hitting third baseman of the Milwaukee Braves, finished second, 81 points back at 216. The point score is figured on the basis of 14 for first place, nine for second and so on down to one for a tenth.

Duke Snider, Brooklyn's slugging center fielder, nosed out St. Louis' Red Schoendienst for third place, 157 to 155. Warren Spahn, Milwaukee lefthanded pitcher, was fifth with 120 points and Robin Roberts, the Phillies' righthanded ace, followed with 106 points.

Mathews received three first place votes, Schoendienst two and Snider and Roberts, one each.

BROOKLYN, as expected, dominated the voting, placing seven men among the first 14 on the list. The only Dodger regulars who didn't receive votes were Billy Cox and Junior Gilliam. Milwaukee and Philadelphia each had four men, St. Louis and New York three each and Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, two each Chicago did not place a man on the list.

The 1952 voting was a close fit among Sauer, Roberts and Black, with the Chicago slugger finishing on top. Campanella was 10th with 25 points and Mathews was 21st with only 13 points.

CAMPANELLA enjoyed a sensational early season. He had driven in 53 runs and hit 17 home runs by May 30. At the All-Star break in early July, he had knocked in 73 and hit 22 homers. He finished up at .312, leading the league with 142 runs batted in. He hit 25 doubles, three triples and 41 homers while playing 144 games. The runs batted in and homers were new league records for catchers.

"I felt this was my best season," he said. "It was the first time I've been able to play all the way through with no serious injury. I feel just as good as when I came up. I get a kick out of playing. I hope I can keep on catching as long as I live."

"I'll be here in the store every day until time to go to Spring training," he said. "Don Newcombe, Larry Doby, Joe Black and I expect to go to Hot Springs about Feb. 1 to start working out."

Player Breaks Arm In Football Workout

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 19 (AP)—Guard Al D'Angelo was lost to North Carolina State for the remainder of the season when he broke his arm in practice today.

Richmond Franchise In Doubtful State

During a two-hour and 18-minute meeting today, Eddie Mooers, who has owned the Richmond Colts for 22 years and has operated them for 21 years in the Piedmont League, offered to sell the franchise to Harry C. Seibold.

Seibold is a Richmond industrialist who would become the operator of a Richmond franchise in the Triple-A International League. The Piedmont League is a Class B circuit.

At the meeting, Seibold made an offer to Mooers for the latter's franchise rights and the lease of Mooers Field. Mooers responded with a counter-offer.

Seibold said tonight he believed he would say now—and not next week when a second meeting had been tentatively scheduled with Mooers— that "the stipulations as set forth by Mr. Mooers in his counter-offer will be unacceptable to the International League and are definitely unacceptable to me."

Pitt in Top Shape

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19 (AP) — The Universiy of Pittsburgh football team will be near its physical peak for the annual game here Saturday with Penn State, Coach Lowell (Red) Dawson said today.

Dick Deitrick, sidelined since Nov. 7 with a mild concussion, will be back at his right end position. Of the regulars, only Right Tackle Eldred Kraemer will be missing. He's out with a knee injury.

Thin Weekend Schedule Marks Pre-Thanksgiving Lull

Less than 25 games are listed as most eastern clubs rest up for the big traditional holiday battles. Several league races topped by the Eastern conference won't be decided until next week but two small schools in Western Pennsylvania will claim crowns tomorrow night.

The Class A championship of the Pittsburgh area WPIAL goes to the Leechburg (9-0)—Baldwin (8-0-1) winner at Jeannette. The high scoring Leechburg eleven, sparked by Halfback Dick Hunter, is favored to win in a close game.

McDonald's undefeated and untied Red Devils (9-0) make a stab at their first Class B WPIAL flag after winning Class C honors in 1951 and 1952. They hold a slim margin over Sewickley township (7-2) in a game at Clairton.

Midland won the A Class last year and Carmichael's was the B victor. The WPIAL's grand champ, in the Double O division, will come out of the Har-Brack vs. Donora tussle next week.

MEANWHILE, three central and eastern schools are at the last barrier to perfect seasons. York, Lock Haven and Abington go against Lancaster, Williamsport, and Cheltenham in an effort to join five western elevens on the select list. Har-Brack, Donora,

With one of the best teams in the State, York's (9-0) Central Penn champions shouldn't have any trouble with the Lancaster (3-5) club that cost it the same title in 1952's finale.

Abington (8-0), titlist of the suburban Philadelphia A conference, is a good deal better than Cheltenham (6-2), having thrashed the two clubs that beat Cheltenham.

Williamsport fans are due for a thriller when the Lock Haven Bobcats (9-0) arrive. Williamsport (5-3), is the only club to defeat Lock Haven in the last 18 games. That was a 14-0 setback last season halting a seven-game Lock Haven winning streak.

Lock Haven is rated a good chance to come through with its first victory over Williamsport in five years for its initial perfect season in over one-quarter of a century.

FORTY-TWO right out of 52 tries for an 80.4 percent average last week tied the best of the year and lifted the overall mark on 425 statewide predictions to 74.3 percent. This week's picks:

Leechburg over Baldwin, McDonald over Sewickley township, Abington over Cheltenham, York over Lancaster, Lock Haven over Williamsport, Jersey Shore over Tyrone, Lebanon over Steelton, Bloomsburg over Danville, South Williamsport over Milton, Hazelton over Mount Carmel, Shamokin over Sunbury, Swoyersville over Luzerne, Old Forge over Carbondale, Minersville over Coal township, Scranton Tech over Jessup, Wilkes-Barre Gar over Wilkes-Barre Coughlin, Schuylkill Haven over Mahanoy City, Lower Merion over Radnor, Hershey over Milton Hershey.

Baltimore Owner Pledges to Make Colts Champions

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19 (AP)—Carroll Rosenbloom said today he'd bought the Baltimore Colts against his will, but since then the spirit of the players had won him over so much that he pledged "whatever it takes" to make them a champion of the National Football league.

Bert Bell, the league commissioner, "mousetrapped" him into buying the club to replace Dallas, Rosenbloom said.

"Frankly, I had no interest in it," he said, "I decided to do what I could financially and dismiss it from my mind. Then the kids won me over."

He saw only the last of the six exhibition games in which the Colts beat the Washington Redskins. Then he started to get interested. He met with a committee of the players to discuss practice pay.

"I decided then they were going to need all the help they could get and I had an obligation I couldn't dismiss lightly. After watching them play the first couple of games, I decided they were a team that deserved everything in the world. You don't find any other pro football team like this.

"Baltimore will have a championship football team. That is a pledge we make. Whatever it takes to do the job, we will do it. It will probably take a lot of money. I hope it doesn't take too much time."

Writers in Favor Of Scoring Fights By Rounds Won

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Boxing Writers association went on record today as favoring the round by round system without points in the scoring of boxing bouts.

The New York State Athletic commission, which is not a member of the NBA, will continue to use the round by round method of scoring with a supplementary 1 to 4 point system. The points are employed only to help break draws.

Under the NBA rule, the winner of each round must get 10 points and the loser of each round any number of points from nine down. The fighter who gets the most points for the entire fight is the winner.

The writers said the round by round system was the simplest way of describing the progress of a fight to readers.

Pony Team Shaky

BATAVIA, N. Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Pony league baseball in Batavia is on the way out unless $10,000 is found to pay off the club's creditors.

Club President and Mayor Judd L. Perkins said "If we cannot square our accounts with our creditors, baseball in Batavia is over."

A meeting has been scheduled Sunday by League President Vincent M. McNamara with club officials. McNamara confirmed that interest in a league franchise has been expressed in Erie, Pa., Auburn and Niagara Falls.

Yanks Sign Pitcher

The club said today he will report to the world champions' training camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., in February. He is not a bonus player and may be optioned to a Minor league team.

The 6-3, 195 pound fast ball pitcher was signed by scout Tom Greenwade, discoverer of Mickey Mantle. He pitched in the Ban Johnson league in Independence, Kas., the past Summer and later played semipro ball in Minden, La.

College Gridirons Free of Dizzy Doings This Fall

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The college gridirons have been singularly free of dizzy doings this Fall, unless you want to consider upsets in that category. In that case, the season is just one grand procession of dizzy doings.

What we mean, though, is that there have been no fifth down incidents, no 12th man situations, no student managers rushing in to catch passes for points after touchdowns.

The nearest thing to a fifth-down incident was a third-down incident, and that took place in the Duke-Navy game, and nothing much could be done about it when the error was discovered later.

THE FAMED fifth-down episode took place several years ago when Cornell, with a fine team coached by Carl Snavely, seemed headed for an unbeaten season when it met Dartmouth in the next to last game on the schedule.

Dartmouth played the Big Red team to a standstill, and was leading, 3-0, when Cornell staged a serious threat. It seemed the 3-0 lead would stand up when a fourth-down Cornell pass was batted down with only seconds remaining.

The spectators who could count were no little astounded when Red Friesell, the referee, allowed Cornell to keep the ball for another try, and the team took advantage of it to complete a touchdown pass. The game ended with Cornell believed to be the winner, 7-3.

But motion pictures disclosed the error. Friesell admitted he had pulled a rock, and Snavely graciously conceded that Dartmouth had won the game.

THE DUKE-NAVY third-down affair might have been the big factor in the 0-0 tie. But then again it might not, as there is no guarantee that Duke, the victim, would have scored if it had had the extra chance to which it was entitled.

It was in the third quarter and Duke had a first down on the Navy 17. On the first play there was a backfield-in-motion penalty against the offensive team, and Duke was set back five yards to the 22.

It still was first down, and three plays later the ball was back to the 17.

Duke Coach Bill Murray, who, after pictures of the game confirmed his idea that his Duke team had one more down to go, said that Duke was prepared to try for a field goal when the ball was give to Navy.

Even if it was proved that the official was wrong, it was too late to do anything about it. They couldn't very well award Duke three points on the theory the field goal attempt would have been good. It was just a tough break, that's all.

ALTHOUGH it didn't mean much, there was an official blunder in the Penn-Notre Dame game last week which, under different circumstances, could have had a very, very important bearing on the outcome.

That occurred when a Notre Dame back, kneeling to take the ball, from center to hold for the try for extra point, got a bad pass, picked up the ball, and ran it over the goal. It was allowed, although his knee was on the ground when he took the ball.

On the whole, though, the unusual incidents are rare this season. But give 'em time. Some Greek history professor will rush out and intercept a forward pass yet.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A LADY ON A TV QUIZ program was asked, "What state is noted for its orange groves, movie studios, and song beginning 'Da-da-da-da Here I Come'?" She answered, "Illinois." In a deeply pained voice, the M.C. told her, "I'm afraid that's just a wee bit wrong. The state we were thinking about was California." "I knew it all the time," maintained the lady, "but I come from Florida. I'm darned if I'm going to advertise any other state."

Marie Wilson, who has made a big hit playing a dim-wit, was dismayed to learn that her husband hoped to have his portrait painted by a Los Angeles artist. "How can you dream of a silly thing like that!" she chided. "On the very eve of our trip to Europe! Wait till we get there—and you can have yourself painted by one of the famous old masters!"

Thin Weekend Schedule Marks Pre-Thanksgiving Lul

Less than 25 games are listed as most eastern clubs rest up for the big traditional holiday battles. Several league races topped by the Eastern conference won't be decided until next week but two small schools in Western Pennsylvania will claim crowns tomorrow night.

The Class A championship of the Pittsburgh area WPIAL goes to the Leechburg (9-0)—Baldwin (8-0-1) winner at Jeannette. The high scoring Leechburg eleven, sparked by Halfback Dick Hunter, is favored to win in a close game.

McDonald's undefeated and untied Red Devils (9-0) make a stab at their first Class B WPIAL flag after winning Class C honors in 1951 and 1952. They hold a slim margin over Sewickley township (7-2) in a game at Clairton.

Midland won the A Class last year and Carmichael's was the B victor. The WPIAL's grand champ, in the Double O division, will come out of the Har-Brack vs. Donora tussle next week.

MEANWHILE, three central and eastern schools are at the last barrier to perfect seasons. York, Lock Haven and Abington go against Lancaster, Williamsport, and Cheltenham in an effort to join five western elevens on the select list. Har-Brack, Donora,

Adams township, Bellwood-Antis and Corry have completed their regular schedules in all-victorious fashion.

With one of the best teams in the State, York's (9-0) Central Penn champions shouldn't have any trouble with the Lancaster (3-5) club that cost it the same title in 1952's finale.

Abington (8-0), titlist of the suburban Philadelphia A conference, is a good deal better than Cheltenham (6-2), having thrashed the two clubs that beat Cheltenham.

Williamsport fans are due for a thriller when the Lock Haven Bobcats (9-0) arrive. Williamsport (5-3), is the only club to defeat Lock Haven in the last 18 games. That was a 14-0 setback last season halting a seven-game Lock Haven winning streak.

Lock Haven is rated a good chance to come through with its first victory over Williamsport in five years for its initial perfect season in over one-quarter of a century.

FORTY-TWO right out of 52 tries for an 80.4 percent average last week tied the best of the year and lifted the overall mark on 125 statewide predictions to 74.3 percent. This week's picks:

Leechburg over Baldwin, McDonald over Sewickley township, Abington over Cheltenham, York over Lancaster, Lock Haven over Williamsport, Jersey Shore over Tyrone, Lebanon over Steelton, Bloomsburg over Danville, South Williamsport over Milton, Hazelton over Mount Carmel, Shamokin over Sunbury, Swoyersville over Luzerne, Old Forge over Carbondale, Minersville over Coal township, Scranton Tech over Jessup, Wilkes-Barre Gar over Wilkes-Barre Coughlin, Schuylkill Haven over Mahanoy City, Lower Merion over Radnor, Hershey over Milton Hershey.

Writers in Favor Of Scoring Fights By Rounds Won

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Boxing Writers association went on record today as favoring the round by round system without points in the scoring of boxing bouts.

All thirty writers present at the group's luncheon today voted for the round by round system as opposed to the point system recently adopted by the National Boxing association.

The New York State Athletic commission, which is not a member of the NBA, will continue to use the round by round method of scoring with a supplementary 1 to 4 point system. The points are employed only to help break draws.

Under the NBA rule, the winner of each round must get 10 points and the loser of each round any number of points from nine down. The fighter who gets the most points for the entire fight is the winner.

The NBA tried to set up a uniform scoring system for the benefit of the television fight fans who watch bouts from various states using different scoring systems.

The writers said the round by round system was the simplest way of describing the progress of a fight to readers.

Baltimore Owner Pledges to Make Colts Champions

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19 (AP)—Carroll Rosenbloom said today he'd bought the Baltimore Colts against his will, but since then the spirit of the players had won him over so much that he pledged "whatever it takes" to make them a champion of the National Football league.

Bert Bell, the league commissioner, "mousetrapped" him into buying the club to replace Dallas, Rosenbloom said.

"Frankly, I had no interest in it," he said. "I decided to do what I could financially and dismiss it from my mind. Then the kids won me over."

He saw only the last of the six exhibition games in which the Colts beat the Washington Redskins. Then he started to get interested. He met with a committee of the players to discuss practice pay.

"I decided then they were going to need all the help they could get and I had an obligation I couldn't dismiss lightly. After watching them play the first couple of games, I decided they were a team that deserved everything in the world. You don't find any other pro football team like this.

"Baltimore will have a championship football team. That is a pledge we make. Whatever it takes to do the job, we will do it. It will probably take a lot of money. I hope it doesn't take too much time."

Pony Team Shaky

BATAVIA, N. Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Pony league baseball in Batavia is on the way out unless $10,000 is found to pay off the club's creditors.

Club President and Mayor Judd L. Perkins said "If we cannot square our accounts with our creditors, baseball in Batavia is over."

A meeting has been scheduled Sunday by League President Vincent M. McNamara with club officials. McNamara confirmed that interest in a league franchise has been expressed in Erie, Pa., Auburn and Niagara Falls.

Yanks Sign Pitcher

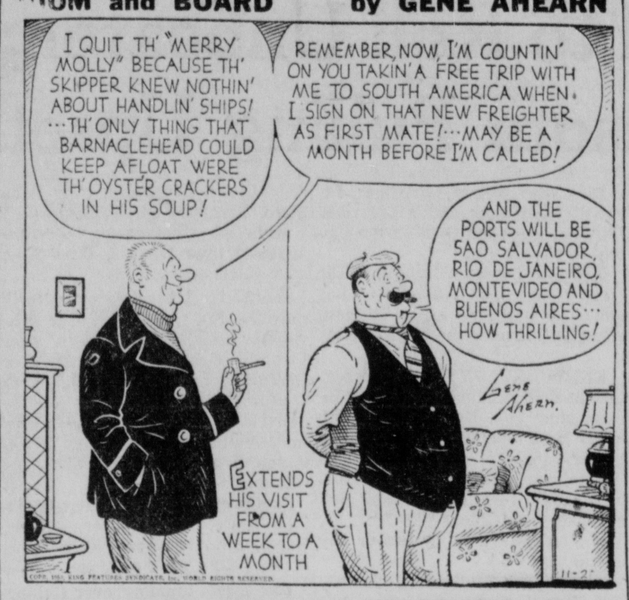
The club said today he will report to the world champions' training camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., in February. He is not a bonus player and may be optioned to a Minor league team.

The 6-3, 195 pound fast ball pitcher was signed by scout Tom Greenwade, discoverer of Mickey Mantle. He pitched in the Ban Johnson league in Independence, Kas., the past Summer and later played semipro ball in Minden, La.



NO TEA PARTY—It's been a rough year on the quarterbacks in the National Football league. Latest to join the list of casualties are Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns and Fred Enke of the Baltimore Colts. Other injured quarterbacks are pictured above.

THE SPORTS TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The college gridirons have been singularly free of dizzy doings this Fall, unless you want to consider upsets in that category. In that case, the season is just one grand procession of dizzy doings.

What we mean, though, is that there have been no fifth down incidents, no 12th man situations, no student managers rushing in to catch passes for points after touchdowns.

The nearest thing to a fifth-down incident was a third-down incident, and that took place in the Duke-Navy game, and nothing much could be done about it when the error was discovered later.

THE FAMED fifth-down episode took place several years ago when Cornell, with a fine team coached by Carl Snavely, seemed headed for an unbeaten season when it met Dartmouth in the next to last game on the schedule.

Dartmouth played the Big Red team to a standstill, and was leading, 3-0, when Cornell staged a serious threat. It seemed the 3-0 lead would stand up when a fourth-down Cornell pass was batted down with only seconds remaining.

The spectators who could count were no little astounded when Red Friesell, the referee, allowed Cornell to keep the ball for another try, and the team took advantage of it to complete a touchdown pass. The game ended with Cornell believed to be the winner, 7-3.

But motion pictures disclosed the error. Friesell admitted he had pulled a rock, and Snavely graciously conceded that Dartmouth had won the game.

THE DUKE-NAVY third-down affair might have been the big factor in the 0-0 tie. But then again it might not, as there is no guarantee that Duke, the victim, would have scored if it had had the extra chance to which it was entitled.

It was in the third quarter and Duke had a first down on the Navy 17. On the first play there was a backfield-in-motion penalty against the offensive team, and Duke was set back five yards to the 22.

It still was first down, and three plays later the ball was back to the 17.

Duke Coach Bill Murray, who, after pictures of the game confirmed his idea that his Duke team had one more down to go, said that Duke was prepared to try for a field goal when the ball was give to Navy.

Even if it was proved that the official was wrong, it was too late to do anything about it. They couldn't very well award Duke three points on the theory the field goal attempt would have been good. It was just a tough break, that's all.

ALTHOUGH it didn't mean much, there was an official blunder in the Penn-Notre Dame game last week which, under different circumstances, could have had a very, very important bearing on the outcome.

That occurred when a Notre Dame back, kneeling to take the ball from center to hold for the try for extra point, got a bad pass, picked up the ball, and ran it over the goal. It was allowed, although his knee was on the ground when he took the ball.

On the whole, though, the unusual incidents are rare this season. But give 'em time. Some Greek history professor will rush out and intercept a forward pass yet.

LOCAL GIRL —

he had spent 21 months in Army hospitals. It was while at Valley Forge Army hospital near Phoenixville that he met his Pottstown wife, the former Nancy Saltzer, who is 22.

THE CASE was the first reported case of bigamy in Pottstown in recent years. Bigamy is a misdemeanor. The maximum penalties on conviction are two years in prison or a $1000 fine, or both.

The young Pottstown woman cleared up her intentions yesterday with answers that were as straightforward as they were brief.

Q. Do you intend to have the marriage annuled?

A. "It's the only thing I can do . . . Yes."

Q. Did Mr. Steinbraker ever, in any way, indicate to you that he was married when he married you?

A. "No."

Q. Did he ever even say that he previously had been married but had been divorced since?

A. "No."

The young Pottstown woman said she has retained Pottstown Attorney Joseph L. Prince in the annulment action.

(OF ANNULMENT actions, Pottstown attorneys said yesterday they follow the same legal course as divorce actions, in Montgomery county, and take three to four months to complete.)

(Although a bigamous marriage is void, it remains legally in effect as a marriage until the annulment. The fact that a marriage is bigamous is, of course, sufficient grounds for an annulment, but the facts of bigamy have to be established at a formal hearing.)

Steinbraker, a thin, good-looking, dark-haired young man, confirmed what his Pottstown

wife said about his deception. He freely admitted that he never had made any attempt to inform her of his previous marriage.

"If she'd known I was married and had a kid, she wouldn't've had anything to do with me," he said. Tears in his eyes, he added, "Nancy is clean and pure. And as innocent as the day she was born."

WHY HAD he deceived the young Pottstown woman?

He replied that he had been deeply in love with her and saw the deception as the only way of being able to marry her. He said his New York City wife, the former Victoria Marone, was opposed to divorce, and they couldn't agree upon terms of a legal separation.

"Nancy brought me something I'd never known before," he said in trying to explain why he preferred bigamy to losing her. Friendship, loyalty, real affection—things I'd never expected to find."

He said he had intended to remain here with his Pottstown wife for the rest of his life, living with Nancy and posing as her legal husband. He said he had hoped that his first wife would never learn of the deception, or if she did, would not expose him.

"Someday, I hoped—some day I'd be able to tell her. But . . ." His voiced trailed off.

STEINBRAKER met the Pottstown woman while he was in Valley Forge with a back ailment, which he attributed to a fall he suffered in the Army.

He said he didn't begin dating her until after he had decided to become separated from the New York city wife. "Until then," he said, "she was just Nancy, a girl I had danced with a few times."

(The Pottstown young woman, who was active in social groups of young people, had met Steinbraker during trips with groups of young women to the Army hospital, to bring cheer and little gifts to the patients there.)

Steinbraker was married in Pottstown the past May 23 in St. John's Reformed church. He had been married to the New York city woman on April 29, 1950, in St. Theresa Catholic church, New York city.

The New York city wife said that he had left her the past April 16, seven days after he arrived home to await his official discharge from the Army.

She said she came home from work that day and found he had gone, leaving behind a note saying he was deserting her.

The New York City woman also said that, before going, he withdrew $1500 from their joint savings account, and took the car of her stepfather, Dominic Paradiso.

The car later was returned, she said, but he used the $1500 for his own uses.

SHE SAID that while he was in the Army (he was drafted in 1950 seven months after he was married), he regularly sent home allotment checks for her and their baby's support.

Part of the allotment money, as well as part of what she earned herself, went into that joint bank account. She said that Steinbraker, after he deserted her, did not contribute to her support or the support of their child, Neal Jr., who will be 3 on Christmas Day.

She did not give any opinion at the hearing as to why he had deserted her, nor did she reveal how she had learned of her husband's bigamous marriage in Pottstown.

The New York City woman did say, however, that after she had heard of the bigamous marriage, she went to Montgomery County courthouse in Norristown, and discovered records of his marriage to the Pottstown woman.

THE CONFESSED bigamist said that he and his New York City wife had not ben on good terms for a long time before he left her. He said that several months before he left her, she had told him to take $1500 from the bank and "get out."

As to the trouble between him and his first wife, Steinbraker said, "She acted like you were trash and she was 'it.'"

In contrast to this unhappy marriage, he said, his Pottstown marriage had been a happy one.

In a further attempt to explain why he had committed bigamy to marry the young Pottstown woman, Steinbraker said that he was one of seven children and that, although his parents treated him well, they weren't able to give him the affection he craved. The young Pottstown woman did.

He said he had worked in Pottstown for Jacobs Aircraft Engine company until he was laid off recently. He said he worked elsewhere recently, but added that he didn't want to publicize this employer because the employer had treated him so well.

Steinbraker said he could scarcely move in his hospital bed. The bed is not guarded by police.

TO THE question of whether he intends to get a lawyer to represent him when he pleads guilty in Montgomery County court, he opened his wallet and said, "How can you get a lawyer with three bucks?"

He added that the $1500 was in a joint account and that he had paid for insurance on the "borrowed" car, had made no attempt to be secretive about taking it, and had returned it.

He said that his New York City wife had opposed divorce on religious grounds. He said he had spent $65 to get a lawyer to try to arrange separation but his New York City wife wanted a separation that would leave him no visiting privileges or other rights to their child.

He was unwilling to give up all rights to his child, he said, although he added that he had not seen the child since his Pottstown marriage.

He said he couldn't answer yet the question of whether he would ever try to see his son again. But he was firm in saying he would not try to see Nancy again.

LET'S GO WANT AD WINDOW SHOPPING

Looking for a used electric train, doll house, bicycle or other toys? Many families are at this time of year, and they search The Mercury Want Ads first! If you have any of these items to sell now is the time to place your ad. Call 6000 and ask for an ad-taker.

THE WALKY GAWKY... she shops on fiery feet!

She hot-foots it along High street from store to store looking for the things she wants to buy—straining her eyes and burning up her shoes.

Fortunately the WALKY GAWKY is a rare bird—almost extinct. Because practically all women everywhere read The Mercury before they shop. It's easier on the feet that way—as well as the pocketbook.

When a woman picks up The Mercury she's looking for all that's going on in Pottstown now. In the stores as well as in the streets and schools. At the counters as well as at the women's club and borough hall.

All business is local . . . and so is The Mercury.

The Mercury is always "first with the most"

Local Eagles Welcome Two as New Members

Two members were initiated into membership and applications of three prospective members were considered at the meeting of Aerie 626, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last night.

President Granville Wagner conducted the meeting, with 25 attending.

Tonight the Eagles will hold a fish fry, for members and their wives at the aerie beginning at 8 p. m.

Entertainers, Dinner, Dancing Highlight Rotary Ladies' Night

Imported entertainers, dancing and dinner featured Rotary's ladies' night program in Brookside Country club last night.

Exams Are Taken By Ursinus Students

Complete from finger-printing to 40 minutes detailed instruction to three hours of finicky concentration is the only way you could describe the Selective Service qualification taken by 15 Ursinus college students yesterday morning.

Proctor Dr. Paul R. Wagner said the group was the smallest to take the exam since it first was given four years ago, and just about the first not taken by a single area student.

After the tedious preliminaries the 11 young men pored over the secret exams for the permitted three hours.

The proctor, his assistant, Earl Moyer, Trappe, and all students are pledged to secrecy on the examination. They are asked not to reveal contents.

The completed tests were sealed and immediately mailed out to exam headquarters at Princeton, N. J., where they will be scored mechanically.

Proctor Wagner, who will give the next exam next April 22, explained, "I've never seen a test or test question. We're not allowed to look at them. Everything is done in secret."

The sun dispelled the illusion.

At 10 p. m. it was 43; at midnight, 40. With most Pottstonians asleep, the mercury slipped quietly down to 37.

The prediction for today, according to the weatherman, pointed toward a repeat of yesterday's well-applauded performance.

Temperatures should be between 65 and 70 at their highest. Tomorrow will be cloudy, he says. Might be showers, too.

he had spent 21 months in Army hospitals. It was while at Valley Forge Army hospital near Phoenixville that he met his Pottstown wife, the former Nancy Saltzer, who is 22.

* *

THE CASE was the first reported case of bigamy in Pottstown in recent years. Bigamy is a misdemeanor. The maximum penalties on conviction are two years in prison or a $1000 fine, or both.

The young Pottstown woman cleared up her intentions yesterday with answers that were as straightforward as they were brief.

Q. Do you intend to have the marriage annuled?

A. "It's the only thing I can do . . . Yes."

Q. Did Mr. Steinbraker ever, in any way, indicate to you that he was married when he married you?

A. "No."

Q. Did he ever even say that he previously had been married but had been divorced since?

A. "No."

The young Pottstown woman said she has retained Pottstown Attorney Joseph L. Prince in the annulment action.

(OF ANNULMENT actions, Pottstown attorneys said yesterday they follow the same legal course as divorce actions, in Montgomery county, and take three to four months to complete.)

(Although a bigamous marriage is void, it remains legally in effect as a marriage until the annulment. The fact that a marriage is bigamous is, of course, sufficient grounds for an annulment, but the facts of bigamy have to be established at a formal hearing.)

Steinbraker, a thin, good-looking, dark-haired young man, confirmed what his Pottstown

wife said about his deception. He freely admitted that he never had made any attempt to inform her of his previous marriage.

"If she'd known I was married and had a kid, she wouldn't've had anything to do with me," he said. Tears in his eyes, he added, "Nancy is clean and pure. And as innocent as the day she was born."

WHY HAD he deceived the young Pottstown woman?

He replied that he had been deeply in love with her and saw the deception as the only way of being able to marry her. He said his New York City wife, the former Victoria Marone, was opposed to divorce, and they couldn't agree upon terms of a legal separation.

"Nancy brought me something I'd never known before," he said in trying to explain why he preferred bigamy to losing her. Friendship, loyalty, real affection—things I'd never expected to find."

He said he had intended to remain here with his Pottstown wife for the rest of his life, living with Nancy and posing as her legal husband. He said he had hoped that his first wife would never learn of the deception, or if she did, would not expose him.

Had he intended to keep his previous marriage a secret from his Pottstown wife forever?

"Someday, I hoped—some day I'd be able to tell her. But . . ." His voiced trailed off.

STEINBRAKER met the Pottstown woman while he was in Valley Forge with a back ailment, which he attributed to a fall he suffered in the Army.

He said he didn't begin dating her until after he had decided to become separated from the New York city wife. "Until then," he said, "she was just Nancy, a girl I had danced with a few times."

(The Pottstown young woman, who was active in social groups of young people, had met Steinbraker during trips with groups of young women to the Army hospital, to bring cheer and little gifts to the patients there.)

Steinbraker was married in Pottstown the past May 23 in St. John's Reformed church. He had been married to the New York city woman on April 29, 1950, in St. Theresa Catholic church, New York city.

The New York city wife said that he had left her the past April 16, seven days after he arrived home to await his official discharge from the Army.

She said she came home from work that day and found he had gone, leaving behind a note saying he was deserting her.

The New York City woman also said that, before going, he withdrew $1500 from their joint savings account, and took the car of her stepfather, Dominic Paradiso.

The car later was returned, she said, but he used the $1500 for his own uses.

SHE SAID that while he was in the Army (he was drafted in 1950 seven months after he was married), he regularly sent home allotment checks for her and their baby's support.

Part of the allotment money, as well as part of what she earned herself, went into that joint bank account. She said that Steinbraker, after he deserted her, did not contribute to her support or the support of their child, Neal Jr., who will be 3 on Christmas Day.

She did not give any opinion at the hearing as to why he had deserted her, nor did she reveal how she had learned of her husband's bigamous marriage in Pottstown.

The New York City woman did say, however, that after she had heard of the bigamous marriage, she went to Montgomery County courthouse in Norristown, and discovered records of his marriage to the Pottstown woman.

THE CONFESSED bigamist said that he and his New York City wife had not ben on good terms for a long time before he left her. He said that several months before he left her, she had told him to take $1500 from the bank and "get out."

As to the trouble between him and his first wife, Steinbraker said, "She acted like you were trash and she was 'it.'"

In contrast to this unhappy marriage, he said, his Pottstown marriage had been a happy one.

In a further attempt to explain why he had committed bigamy to marry the young Pottstown woman, Steinbraker said that he was one of seven children and that, although his parents treated him well, they weren't able to give him the affection he craved. The young Pottstown woman did.

He said he had worked in Pottstown for Jacobs Aircraft Engine company until he was laid off recently. He said he worked elsewhere recently, but added that he didn't want to publicize this employer because the employer had treated him so well.

Steinbraker said he could scarcely move in his hospital bed. The bed is not guarded by police.

TO THE question of whether he intends to get a lawyer to represent him when he pleads guilty in Montgomery County court, he opened his wallet and said, "How can you get a lawyer with three bucks?"

He added that the $1500 was in a joint account and that he had paid for insurance on the "borrowed" car, had made no attempt to be secretive about taking it, and had returned it.

He said that his New York City wife had opposed divorce on religious grounds. He said he had spent $65 to get a lawyer to try to arrange separation but his New York City wife wanted a separation that would leave him no visiting privileges or other rights to their child.

He was unwilling to give up all rights to his child, he said, although he added that he had not seen the child since his Pottstown marriage.

He said he couldn't answer yet the question of whether he would ever try to see his son again. But he was firm in saying he would not try to see Nancy again.

Local Eagles Welcome Two as New Members

Two members were initiated into membership and applications of three prospective members were considered at the meeting of Aerie 626, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last night.

President Granville Wagner conducted the meeting, with 25 attending.

Tonight the Eagles will hold a fish fry for members and their wives at the aerie beginning at 8 p. m.

Entertainers, Dinner, Dancing Highlight Rotary Ladies' Night

Imported entertainers, dancing and dinner featured Rotary's ladies' night program in Brookside Country club last night.

Three veteran club members, who boast long attendance records were presented photographs.

The trio, Irvin W. Reigner, with 34 years perfect attendance, Hilary Missimer, 28 years, and James Reigner, 27 years, were given pictures which showed them posing together.

W. Kenneth Nichols and his orchestra provided dinner music and music for dancing.

Exams Are Taken By Ursinus Students

Complete from finger-printing to 40 minutes detailed instruction to three hours of finicky concentration is the only way you could describe the Selective Service qualification taken by 15 Ursinus college students yesterday morning.

Proctor Dr. Paul R. Wagner said the group was the smallest to take the exam since it first was given four years ago, and just about the first not taken by a single area student.

After the tedious preliminaries the 11 young men pored over the secret exams for the permitted three hours.

The proctor, his assistant, Earl Moyer, Trappe, and all students are pledged to secrecy on the examination. They are asked not to reveal contents.

The completed tests were sealed and immediately mailed out to exam headquarters at Princeton, N. J., where they will be scored mechanically.

Proctor Wagner, who will give the next exam next April 22, explained, "I've never seen a test or test question. We're not allowed to look at them. Everything is done in secret."

SUN PROMPTS —

the borough from Chester county, billowing over the Schuylkill as if shot from a Revolutionary cannon.

The sun dispelled the illusion.

With the sun's day's work done, temperatures started sinking back down toward the frigid mark.

At 10 p. m. it was 43; at midnight, 40. With most Pottstonians asleep, the mercury slipped quietly down to 37.

The prediction for today, according to the weatherman, pointed toward a repeat of yesterday's well-applauded performance.

Temperatures should be between 65 and 70 at their highest. Tomorrow will be cloudy, he says. Might be showers, too.

THE WALKY GAWKY... she shops on fiery feet!

She hot-foots it along High street from store to store looking for the things she wants to buy—straining her eyes and burning up her shoes.

Fortunately the WALKY GAWKY is a rare bird—almost extinct. Because practically all women everywhere read The Mercury before they shop. It's easier on the feet that way—as well as the pocketbook.

When a woman picks up The Mercury she's looking for all that's going on in Pottstown now. In the stores as well as in the streets and schools. At the counters as well as at the women's club and borough hall.

That's why people who have something to sell depend on The Mercury to help 'em sell it fast.

All business is local . . . and so is The Mercury.

The Mercury is always "first with the most"

GIRLS

OVERHEARD

In the subway the other day, a personable young lady was overheard saying that she was worried about finding a good job, because she had no training of any sort and no experience. If she should happen upon this message during her travels, she should head for the nearest Bell Telephone Employment Office or Business Office listed in the Directory. If she prefers, she can call the Operator and ask for the Employment Office for Women. She can then forget about having neither training nor experience. Neither is needed. What's more, she'll be well paid from the start.

OVERHEARD

In the subway the other day, a personable young lady was overheard saying that she was worried about finding a good job, because she had no training of any sort and no experience. If she should happen upon this message during her travels, she should head for the nearest Bell Telephone Employment Office or Business Office listed in the Directory. If she prefers, she can call the Operator and ask for the Employment Office for Women. She can then forget about having neither training nor experience. Neither is needed. What's more, she'll be well paid from the start.

Local Church Slates Dinner Tonight As Climax to Fund Project Drive

A victory dinner celebrating the successful windup of a building fund drive for a new St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church will be held tonight at 6:30 o'clock at the Clover Leaf restaurant.

The goal of the drive was set at $45,000. Already more than $40,000 has been raised, according to Douglas Moyer, publicity chairman.

"We expect that by the time the follow-up committee has completed its work the $45,000 goal will be reached," he said.

All of the funds were raised from among the 160 members of the congregation only. There were no side solicitations, Moyer said.

FOR THE past 70 years, the congregation has held its services at its church at Walnut and Penn streets.

The new church will be erected at a site at North Franklin and Grace streets in the North End.

Planning committees already are at work consulting with architects and actual building will probably start next year according to Moyer.

The new church will have seating capacity in the sanctuary for at least 200 persons and recreation and Sunday school facilities for more than 300.

The lot measures 340 feet by 140 feet.

The fund drive chairmen are as follows: canvas chairman, Elmer Gross; initial gifts, Harry Keeler; special gifts, Lamonde DeKalb; teams, Frank Gross; hostess, Mrs. Kenneth Bohner; arrangements, Mrs. Frank Gross; treasurer, Wilson Christman; publications, Douglas Moyer.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP) — A conference scheduled by Federal mediators to try to head off a threatened strike of 1700 employes of the Greyhound Bus company was postponed until tomorrow at 10 a. m.

State Group to Mail Applications for Licenses

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The State revenue department will begin mailing Tuesday 4½ million renewal applications for Pennsylvania drivers licenses for the year 1954.

The department said today that the total is about 200,000 above the number sent out on first mailing the past year.

PUC Rejects Complaint Of Borough on Increase

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Public Utility commission today dismissed a complaint by the borough of Philipsburg, Centre county, against an $18,000 rate increase by the Citizens Water company.

The PUC said the rates, in effect since Aug. 1, 1952, do not produce an excessive return. The company serves 2000 consumers.

Ex-County Employes Drawing $25,308 In Retirement Funds

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 19 — Forty-two former Montgomery county employes are drawing retirement allowances of $25,308.36 from the Montgomery county retirement program, according to the 16th annual report of M. Louis Johnson, actuary to the Montgomery county retirement board.

The report covered the year ending Aug. 31, 1953 and was submitted to the retirement board, composed of County Commissioners Foster C. Hillegass, chairman; Frederick C. Peters and Raymond K. Mensch; Controller Joseph H. Green, secretary, and Abram H. Hallman, employes' representative.

The active membership in the fund at the end of the year was 386. During the year, two employes were added to the retirement list.

The funds of the retirement board, invested in US Government bonds, have a value of $1,830,900.89. During the year, interest earnings on the investment amounted to $42,664.

Montgomery county's appropriation to the fund for the year was $67,636. Participating employes also contributed a percentage share of their earnings.

BONDS END RISE

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP) — US Government bonds ended their week-long rise today as the corporate bond market fluctuated narrowly.

Credit Plan Suggested For Farmers Programs

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The dean of the Pennsylvania State University Agriculture school thinks farmers need a credit plan to give them funds to install soil conservation programs.

Dr. Lyman E. Jackson told the sixth annual Pennsylvania soil conservation district directors conference today that good soil and water conservation methods increase the farmer's income while saving State and National resources.

WHAT IS A SALE
Have you ever stopped to wonder just what a sale really is? Many people feel that when dealing with one of these "sale merchants" they are obtaining a bargain. This is simply not true.
Merchants have sales to get rid of merchandise for one of two very simple reasons. Either the items offered are scratched, worn, or not popular, and therefore can't be sold, or they are old—thus making a cut in price necessary. Some items may be sale leaders which are bought for the express purpose of luring people into the store. You all have seen this type of merchandise. It is the common thinly plated silver, cheap gold-plated jewelry, and outlaw watches often seen at sales, auctions, and drug stores.
DO YOU HONESTLY WANT THIS TYPE OF JEWELRY FOR YOURSELF, OR TO GIVE AS GIFTS THIS CHRISTMAS?
Then there is the old practice of switching price tags. Naturally this is dishonest, but it happens many times, and there is no way to be protected from this other than to make sure of your jeweler.
The best way is to frown upon so-called sales. You can't receive a better bargain than to deal with your legitimate jeweler who does not offer sale leaders or eye-catching so-called bargains. There is always something wrong with Sales—WATCH OUT FOR THEM!
When you really analyze this subject, doesn't it sound ridiculous to believe statements such as these:
1. We are buying out an overstocked manufacturer who needs money.
2. We like you so much that we want to give you a gift, so we are offering our goods so low that we are losing money.
3. We strive for honesty and integrity, so we want to offer you famous-make jewelry for one-half off and more.
We have presented the facts—you draw your own conclusions.
See you this Christmas.

Local Church Slates Dinner Tonight As Climax to Fund Project Drive

A victory dinner celebrating the successful windup of a building fund drive for a new St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church will be held tonight at 6:30 o'clock at the Clover Leaf restaurant.

The goal of the drive was set at $45,000. Already more than $40,000 has been raised, according to Douglas Moyer, publicity chairman.

"We expect that by the time the follow-up committee has completed its work the $45,000 goal will be reached," he said.

All of the funds were raised from among the 160 members of the congregation only. There were no side solicitations, Moyer said.

FOR THE past 70 years, the congregation has held its services at its church at Walnut and Penn streets.

The new church will be erected at a site at North Franklin and Grace streets in the North End.

Planning committees already are at work consulting with architects and actual building will probably start next year according to Moyer.

The new church will have seating capacity in the sanctuary for at least 200 persons and recreation and Sunday school facilities for more than 300.

The lot measures 340 feet by 140 feet.

The fund drive chairmen are as follows: canvas chairman, Elmer Gross; initial gifts, Harry Keeler; special gifts, Lamonde DeKalb; teams, Frank Gross; hostess, Mrs. Kenneth Bohner; arrangements, Mrs. Frank Gross; treasurer, Wilson Christman; publications, Douglas Moyer.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP) — A conference scheduled by Federal mediators to try to head off a threatened strike of 1700 employes of the Greyhound Bus company was postponed until tomorrow at 10 a. m.

State Group to Mail Applications for Licenses

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The State revenue department will begin mailing Tuesday 4½ million renewal applications for Pennsylvania drivers licenses for the year 1954.

The department said today that the total is about 200,000 above the number sent out on first mailing the past year.

PUC Rejects Complaint Of Borough on Increase

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Public Utility commission today dismissed a complaint by the borough of Philipsburg, Centre county, against an $18,000 rate increase by the Citizens Water company.

The PUC said the rates, in effect since Aug. 1, 1952, do not produce an excessive return. The company serves 2000 consumers.

Ex-County Employes Drawing $25,308 In Retirement Funds

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 19 — Forty-two former Montgomery county employes are drawing retirement allowances of $25,308 36 from the Montgomery county retirement program, according to the 16th annual report of M. Louis Johnson, actuary to the Montgomery county retirement board.

The report covered the year ending Aug. 31, 1953 and was submitted to the retirement board, composed of County Commissioners Foster C. Hillegass, chairman; Frederick C. Peters and Raymond K. Mensch; Controller Joseph H. Green, secretary, and Abram H. Hallman, employes' representative.

The active membership in the fund at the end of the year was 386. During the year, two employes were added to the retirement list.

The funds of the retirement board, invested in US Government bonds, have a value of $1,830,900.89. During the year, interest earnings on the investment amounted to $42,664.

Montgomery county's appropriation to the fund for the year was $67,636. Participating employes also contributed a percentage share of their earnings.

BONDS END RISE

Credit Plan Suggested For Farmers Programs

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19 (AP)—The dean of the Pennsylvania State University Agriculture school thinks farmers need a credit plan to give them funds to install soil conservation programs.

Dr. Lyman E. Jackson told the sixth annual Pennsylvania soil conservation district directors conference today that good soil and water conservation methods increase the farmer's income while saving State and National resources.
